Unity Pleas Heeded:

Goldwater To Back GOP Party Choice

WASHINGTON (AP) — Barry Goldwater—joining in Republican pleas for unity after his near-renunciation of Nelson A. Rockefeller—has strongly indicated he could back the New York governor for president.

"I've never voted for a Democrat for president yet," Goldwater told a Republican dinner Tuesday night. "And if people want to convince me they have changed their spots, I can be convinced."

The 1964 presidential candidate had said 24 hours earlier that "conservatives want no part of Rockefeller"—and the remark prompted pleas from around the country for Republicans to unify and beat the Democrats.

Presidential hopeful Richard M. Nixon and California Gov. Ronald Reagan immediately announced they would support Rockefeller if he became the nominee and Reagan said he hoped Goldwater would, too.

Reagon Asks Unity

"The months ahead," Reagan said in a message to the dinner, "are too crucial to allow for bickering and backbiting among Republicans. If we are divided, we may lose forever the opportunity to meet the challenges of this generation."

William E. Miller, Goldwater's vice presidential running mate in 1964, said he also would back Rockefeller and said he thought Goldwater would end up supporting whoever the GOP nominates.

Choice Is Nixon

Goldwater—referring to his earlier remarks against Rockefeller—added his own call for unity at the Tuesday night dinner.

"If we Republicans can learn one lesson from 1964," he said, "It is this—let's attack the ultimate target, not a Republican.

"If you think that's a funny statement coming from a fellow who said what I said yesterday," he continued, "well, I've never voted for a Democrat for president yet."

But Goldwater repeated that his choice for the nomination is Nixon. "I don't rule out others," he said, "I just happen to believe in Dick."

In other political developments:

—President Johnson declined to enter the April 30 Massachusetts presidential primary. That leaves Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, Democratic peace candidate, unopposed—which under a new state law could mean the state's delegates to the national convention will be required to vote for the Minnesota Democrat on the first ballot.

Available For Draft

— Scattered returns from Minnesota's precinct caucuses showed strength for McCarthy in the Minneapolis-St. Paul area but statewide support for President Johnson. The preference test was taken at more than 3,000 precincts and results may remain blurry for weeks.

—Rockefeller bypassed the April Wisconsin primary as he had said he would. The governor declined an invitation to withdraw a disclaimer of presidential ambitions by 5 p.m. Tuesday.

But Rockefeller repeated in Albany that he's available for a draft. "I'm not burning my draft card either."

—Campaign aides to third-party presidential candidate George C. Wallace are starting petition drives this week to get his name on presidential ballots in Colorado, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming.

GOP Conservatives Seek Party Takeover

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Conservative Michigan Republicans out to win a stronger hand in the regular GOP state convention next month, gather in Grand Rapids this weekend to "regroup, replan and reattack."

They bill their Saturday meeting as a conservative Republican state convention, and leaders of the movement acknowledge their hope is for a show of support strong enough to force the regular state GOP convention to adopt policy positions more palatable to the conservative wing.

It also could mark the first big step in an intensified drive by conservatives to capture control of the GOP on a statewide basis.

Oppose Liberals

Richard Durant, head of the conservative - oriented United Republicans of Michigan, said the convention's purpose is to draw new plans to resume the attack in the struggles waged between conservatives and the moderate-liberal elements in the party.

"In the past six years, Gov. (George) Romney and the State Central Committee of the Republican party have been attempting to purge conservatives from the party in Michigan," Durant said.

He also is head of a conservative GOP group which has won control of the 14th Congressional District, in Wayne County, which contains six congressional districts and parts of two others.

Settle Organization

Durant said conservatives also have taken command of the party apparatus in the 19th Congressional District, in Oakland and Wayne counties, and in the 12th Congressional District, which is in Macomb County.

"One of the things to be settled in Grand Rapids is whether conservative Republicans all over the state should become part of the United Republicans of Michigan or whether another group should be formed," said Durant.

He said conservative groups were active in 14 of Michigan's counties—Baraga, Bay, Berrien, Cass, Genesee, Grand Traverse, Kalamazoo, Macomb, Muskegon, Ottawa, Oakland, Van Buren, Washtenaw and Wayne counties.

"We've been forced to go outside the party to be heard," Durant said. "We are not splitting off from the party. But we want a platform from which our views can be expressed."

The stated purposes of the convention are to formally organize a statewide movement, elect officers, adopt policy positions on state and national issues, and to conduct a straw vote presidential preference poll among those who attend the convention.

Claim Treasury Leak Whitewash

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Wright Patman has demanded a congressional inquiry into a potentially profitable tip on supposedly secret information leaked to securities dealers by a federal employe.

Patman, the Texas Democrat who heads the House Banking Committee, called a government investigation of the leak "highly incomplete" and "obviously an attempt to whitewash a highly serious situation."

The Treasury Department said Tuesday a tip by a 61-year-old employe of the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia gave some securities dealers advance knowledge of terms for a $2.5 billion treasury borrowing last August.

The employe, who worked for the bank for 46 years, was suspended and later died of a heart attack, the government said.

Both the Treasury and the Federal Reserve said new procedures to prevent further leaks were worked out and have been used since Aug. 17. The tip gave the securities dealers about one hour's advance notice.

"I am not convinced this leak is the only one that has occurred," Patman said in a statement.

He urged that the General Accounting Office, the investigative arm of Congress, be empowered to probe the whole matter, with access to the Federal Reserve as well as the Treasury.

Khe Sanh Siege Guns Hit Troop Carrying Plane

SAIGON (AP) — Communist gunners besieging Khe Sanh shot down a U.S. Air Force C123 transport carrying 49 men near that Marine combat base today, a 7th Air Force spokesman announced.

The fate of the men — 5 crewmen and 44 passengers — was not immediately determined.

The C123s are propeller-driven planes with two auxiliary turbojet engines. The maximum payload is 15,000 pounds. They ordinarily carry in fresh troops for Khe Sanh and fly out others for rest or reassignment.

Communist shelling of the base appeared to be easing. The Marines reported 100 incoming rounds in a 24-hour period, a sharp decline from the hundreds of recent days.

Elsewhere, U.S. forces killed 110 enemy soldiers in three sharp clashes, U.S. spokesmen reported, as the Communists shelled provincial capitals and military posts for the third straight day. The U.S. Command said the shelling caused little damage.

American officers said 50,000 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong have been killed in their operations against cities and other major centers in South Vietnam from Jan. 30 until midnight Tuesday. A senior U.S. commander said the enemy "scraped up a lot of people at the last minute" for the lunar new year offensive, but estimated the net losses at 30,000.

American armed forces were reported to have lost 2,000 killed and the South Vietnamese 4,000 in the five-week period.

About 75 miles north of Saigon, paratroopers of the U.S. 101st Airborne Division ran into 150 Viet Cong holding a village.

The Communists opened up with automatic weapons and bazookas and pulled in about 250 reinforcements. Supported by artillery and rocket-firing helicopters, the Americans killed 56 of the enemy force, spokesmen said, while five Americans were killed and 26 wounded.

Along the coastal lowlands below Da Nang, men of the U.S. Army's Americal Division reported killing 64 enemy soldiers in two clashes. Artillery and air strikes accounted for many of the dead among the enemy forces, who were entrenched in concrete bunkers. Two Americans were killed and 23 wounded.

Other scattered clashes brought total American casualties for the day to 13 killed and 54 wounded, U.S. headquarters reported.

Fighting was reported continuing two miles southwest of Ca Mau, with South Vietnamese troops pursuing guerrillas they drove out of the provincial capital at the southern tip of the country.

The Communists invaded the town Tuesday, and the allied commands said government troops killed 275 of them in 15 hours of fighting before the remnants of the enemy were chased from the town.

U. S. headquarters described the shellings as harassment. It said casualties and damage were light at all locations and the Communists did not follow up with ground attacks.

U.S. Urged To Move Against Saigon Graft

Adviser's Report Rips Vietnamese

WASHINGTON AP — A top U. S. civilian adviser says the United States must boldly take the initiative to root out corruption in South Vietnam's government because, he insists, there aren't enough honest Vietnamese officials to do the job.

"Corruption is permeating all echelons of government and society, corroding the vitality of this nation, eroding the framework of government and unnecessarily prolonging the war," the adviser said in private reports from Vietnam.

The reports were made available to The Associated Press on the condition that the adviser, chief of a 22-man team in Vietnam, not be identified.

Saying the United States "must take the initiative in this remedial action and, once having started must continue it," the adviser declared: "Vietnamese officials are so involved that very few have hands sufficiently clean that they can make an immediate major independent contribution."

One report, which outlined a specific plan of action, was submitted last Nov. 29 to the Agency for International Development in Saigon. It went to AID's then-new "Public Administration Ad Hoc Committee on Corruption in Vietnam."

An AID spokesman in Washington told a reporter Tuesday:

"The committee never really got started. And it's possible it won't get going.

Question Of Law

"When you get into the business of trying to make another government clean, under international law you get into the question of sovereign nations."

The U.S. adviser sent a copy of the report to his superiors in Washington, along with another complaining that he had previously proposed stern measures against graft only to encounter opposition from "hearts and minds purists" in the U.S. mission.

It is time, he said, to stop "treating corruption as a delicate, unmentionable subject." To clamp down on the situation, his report to AID recommended that the United States:

—Create an anticorruption office within the U.S. mission, invite the South Vietnamese to set up a corresponding office, and offer rewards to Vietnamese citizens for solid evidence of corruption.

Ask Confrontation

—Confront the government of South Vietnam with examples of corruption as they develop and "insist that law enforcement and revenue collecting officials go to jail and be publicly disgraced for involvement in graft and corruption."

—"Abandon our present devotion to the fiction that corruption is the special field of lower and middle echelon government officials. Instead place the blame squarely where it belongs —right at the top."

—Agree that "no attempt will be made to dig into past history of anyone who henceforth toes the line."

"No weak-kneed or pussyfooting measures will have the least effect," the adviser said.

His reports told of corruption extending to the very top of the Vietnamese customs collecting organization and said unknown millions of dollars in revenue had been lost. He gave examples ranging from police shakedowns to opium smuggling.

Hits 'Unconcern'

Sen. Ernest Gruening, D-Alaska, chairman of the Senate subcommittee on foreign aid expenditures, and a longtime investigator of corruption in Vietnam, told a reporter "our efforts are not effective because some of our agencies aren't concerned about corruption."

"Corruption springs at you from bottom to top and the American taxpayer is paying the bill," said Gruening, an opponent of U.S. policy in Vietnam.

Last week Gruening, after seeing copies of the adviser's reports, told the Senate of a gold and opium smuggling operation which he said "involved the highest South Vietnamese government officials."

President Johnson, speaking Friday in Beaumont, Tex., said "certainly, they have corruption and we also have it in Boston, in New York, in Washington and in Johnson City. Somebody is stealing something in Beaumont right now."

The U.S. adviser, however, told AID that South Vietnamese corruption, when viewed across the board, "is appalling; it is frightening enough to make one have grave doubts that there is any possibility of ever achieving any reasonable degree of honesty and integrity in Vietnamese officialdom."

Would Boost Revenue

An honestly run customs operation "conceivably could produce revenue equaling the entire AID program" less commodity imports, he said. That would be about $300 million.

An aide to the chief adviser said "no statistics are available and, it is doubted, ever will be, on the amount of taxes lost

Air France Jet Crashes, Burns; 63 Persons Die

POINTE-A-PITRE, Guadeloupe (AP) — Rescue crews reached the wreckage of an Air France 707 Boeing jet today and reported that all 63 persons on board, including a woman identified as the wife of real estate man William Zeckendorf, died when the plane hit a mountainside Tuesday night.

Cutting through dense terrain, searchers found parts of the plane on Matouba Mountain on the western half of this two-island French West Indies territory. The mountain is about 700 feet high and alongside La Soufriere, a dormant volcano frequently visited by tourists.

The plane ploughed into it as it headed for a landing at Pointe-A-Pitre's Raizet Airport, about 30 miles away. Witnesses said the jet burst into flames and exploded.

A resident of the nearby village of St. Claude told reporters: "It was coming in at an extremely low altitude. I heard it explode like a bomb."

En route from Santiago, Chile to Paris, the plane "just disappeared from the radar screen" while making its landing approach, Luis Guillermo Medina, an airport administration official said.

The plane had left Caracas, Venezuela, at 6:27 p.m. after stops in Lima, Peru, and Quito, Ecuador, and was due in Guadeloupe, Air France's main servicing area in the Caribbean, about 55 minutes later.

Officials said the weather was good at the time of the crash and that they had received no emergency messages from the pilot.

In New York, Miss Marjorie Campbell, Zeckendorf's secretary, said Mr. and Mrs. Zeckendorf were to have met in Guadeloupe Tuesday night and then sailed on the SS France for a Caribbean vacation cruise. Mrs. Zeckendorf had boarded the plane in Lima.

Air France also listed among the passengers a "Joseph Rosenbluth, presumed to be American."

Soviets Silent On Probe Fate

MOSCOW (AP) — The Russians gave no clue to the fate of their space probe Zond 4 today, the day on which the Sputnik should reach the moon if that is its target.

There has been no official word since a terse announcement early Sunday that Zond 4 was launched Saturday, went into a parking orbit around the earth, then blasted off "to study outlying regions of near-earth space."

The wording stirred speculation that the craft might make history's first attempt to orbit the moon and return to earth. Scientists consider this a necessary preliminary to landing a man on the moon.

If Zond 4 was on a lunar mission, the trip there should have taken 3½ days and it should arrive sometime today. The time of the launching Saturday has not been announced.

Senate Votes 83-13 For Antiriot Rider

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has narrowly rejected an effort to exempt single-family homes from a civil rights-open housing bill but has crushed a liberal bid to stave off antiriot amendments.

More and tougher antiriot proposals were on tap today as the Senate continued its seven-week struggle with the civil rights measure.

By a thumping 82-13 vote, Tuesday, the Senate attached to the bill a measure that would make it a federal crime to cross a state line with intent to incite a riot.

And over the objection of Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., floor manager of the bill, it adopted two other Southern-sponsored amendments related to riots and other civil disorders.

In contrasts, an amendment to punch a big hole in the proposed ban on discrimination in the sale or rental of housing was barely defeated, 48 to 43.

The amendment, by Sen. Howard H. Baker, Jr., R-Tenn., would have exempted individual homeowners and thus removed from coverage an estimated 29 million single-family dwellings, or about 44 per cent of the housing market.

Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., said he will propose antiriot amendments to provide federal criminal penalties for a whole series of acts by persons who travel in interstate commerce.

He referred specifically to persons who instigate civil disorders, teach or demonstrate the use of firearms, explosives and incendiary devices like homemade firebombs, engage in sniping and looting, obstruct a fireman or policeman, or shoot at or throw a rock at a car on a federal-aid highway.

Long contended this would be more effective than the antiriot measure tacked on the civil rights legislation Tuesday after Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey had first ruled it out of order.

Zilwaukee Bridge Repair Completed

LANSING (AP)— Traffic will return to normal Thursday on the Zilwaukee Bridge carrying I 75 over the Saginaw River near Saginaw.

The State Highway Department reports repair work has been completed on the bridge except for minor cleanup chores.

The bridge was damaged five months ago when it was rammed by a limestone carrier. Traffic has been routed to limited lanes during the repair job.

Copper Country Train Makes Last Run On Thursday

CHICAGO (AP) — The Milwaukee Road and the Soo Line announced Tuesday their jointly operated Copper Country Limiteds between Milwaukee and Calumet, Mich., will make their last runs Thursday.

The Interstate Commerce Commission approved dropping the trains which the companies said have been losing money because of poor patronage and loss of mail handling revenue.

Rotarians Are Press Guests

Instant Replay Newspaper Idea

Newspapers, Escanaba Daily Press Editor Jean Worth told the Escanaba Rotary Club at its luncheon Monday at the House of Ludington, are sometimes regarded as old-fashioned compared with the electronic news media—the radio and TV.

It does take newspapers longer to print and distribute the news than to bang it out in a broadcast, said Worth, but each medium has its merits.

"Television is credited in sports with instant replay, but all newspapers — even the weeklies — have always had this feature," quipped Worth. "All you have to do is read it over again. And you can do it whenever you like, without waiting for a broadcast."

Worth said that newspapers' role in news reporting is changing because of the instantaneous relay of election news and its accent on a quickie character. "For complexities, for in-depth reporting there's no substitute for a journal. How can TV provide a supermarket's price list?"

The Escanaba Daily Press, Worth told the Rotarians, who visited the Press plant after luncheon and saw its operations and the printing of Tuesday's edition, has a circulation of 10,500 daily between Hermansville and Blaney, between Lake Michigan and Superior.

It employs 48 full time workers, 6 part time workers and 104 newspaper carriers.

Air Traffic Here Growing

North Central Airlines boarded and deplaned 1,460 passengers at Escanaba Airport in February, compared with 944 in the same month a year ago.

The total included 706 boardings and 754 deplanings. February 1966 saw 505 board and 439 deplane.

The airline reported that Escanaba received less airmail in February than a year ago, but put more aboard, express was about the same and air freight, both on and off was up.

The 1967 boardings only at Upper Peninsula ports of North Central put Marquette on top with 19,647, Houghton next with 12,496, Iron Mountain, 11,336 and Escanaba, 7,862 and Menominee-Marinette 7,647.

Average Michigan Tax Rate: $43.11

LANSING (AP) — The State Board of Assessors has announced the average tax rate for 1968 as applied to utilities will be $43.11 per $1,000 of assessed valuations.

The rate will be levied against the assessed valuations of railroads, telephone and telegraph companies, car loaning companies and similar utilities.

The board also reported that property taxes levied by all units of local government amounted to $1.28 billion in Michigan last year. This represented an increase of $159.45 million over 1966. The average tax rate for 1968, the board said, increased $3.08 over the 1967 rate of $40.03.

Seek Site For Trailer Park

The Planning Commission, after considerable discussion, referred to its zoning subcommittee for study and recommendation the question of finding a possible site (either on public or private lands) for development as a mobile homes subdivision.

The Commission met in the City Hall Tuesday afternoon with Chairman Matt Smith presiding. The zoning subcommittee is headed by Ronald Lankford, Commission member.

Phil LaMarche appeared before the Commission in support of Phil & Lee's request to purchase city-owned land on the northwest side of the city for a mobile homes site.

Jack Sisson and Art Schaffer, representing the Delta County Sportsmen's Club, directed attention to the Club's lease with the City, whose wording would prevent the city breaking the lease for such as that proposed by Phil & Lee's.

The Commission also heard Art DeGrand request that a site in the industrial park area, owned by the city, be made available for a trailer park. That request was also referred to Lankford's committee.

STANTON (AP) — Dr. I.S. Lilly, a prominent trapshooter, died Tuesday at a Grand Rapids hospital after a lengthy illness. He was 85.

Lilly, a physician at Stanton in Montcalm County for 52 years, was one of the nation's finest trapshooters and won the North American clay target championship in 1951. In 1933, he and his son, John E. of Stanton, were the national father and son trap champions. He was a life member of the American Trapshooting Association.

Soviets Seeking Treaty Support Of Warsaw Bloc

SOFIA, Bulgaria — (AP) — Leaders of the seven Soviet Bloc nations gathered in the Bulgarian capital today for a Warsaw Pact summit meeting threatened with more wrangling between the Russians and the maverick Romanians.

Bucharest's delegation walked out of the international meeting of Communist parties in Budapest last week rather than sit still for criticism of Romanian policy and Red China. In what looked like an attempt to patch things up, Soviet Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev stopped in Bucharest on his way to Sofia and met with Romanian party chief Nicolae Ceausescu.

The Soviet delegation arrived in Sofia today. It also included Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, Foreign Minister Andrei A. Groyko and Defense Minister Andrei A. Grechko.

At the meeting, which is expected to last until Friday, the Communist leaders will discuss the Soviet-American draft of a proposed treaty to prevent the spread of nuclear weapons, the Vietnam situation and other subjects, Communist sources said.

The nuclear treaty draft appeared likely to be the chief source of trouble. The Soviet Union is believed seeking unified support of it from its allies, but Romania has opposed the draft in the Geneva disarmament talks and is expected to repeat its arguments here.

After their walkout in Budapest last week, the Romanians warned that they would not tolerate any criticism of their positions at the summit meeting here.

The last Warsaw Pact summit meeting, in Romania 20 months ago, was highlighted by a dispute between Brezhnev and Ceausescu. The Soviets wanted to tighten control of the pact, Romania wanted to loosen it, and they battled to a stalemate.

Book Reviews Part Of Public Library Service

The old adage which says, "You can't tell a book by its cover," is certainly applicable in today's world of books, and in a continuing attempt to serve and inform the reading public, the Escanaba Public Library is making a digest of book reviews available to patrons.

The reviews, compiled and edited by the H. W. Wilson Co., are selected from periodicals recommended by a committee appointed by the American Library Association Reference Services Division. As a rule, three reviews of fiction and four for non-fiction works may be found in this one journal. The interesting exception being that when a book is of unusual importance or of a controversial nature, Wilson strives to reflect several points of view.

The Book Review Digest, which is published monthly, will be kept with the seven day books although it is classified as reference material. The service is also of great value to persons wishing to make advance selections from book clubs or when choosing a book for a gift. Personnel at the library will assist readers in the use of the materials.

Mistaken Notion Hurts Fish Sale

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — The Alaska House Resources Committee has introduced a resolution asking Congress not to use the terms "salmonella" or "slamonellosis" in referring to a bacteria that causes food poisoning.

The bacteria doesn't originate in a salmon, the resolution points out. But, it says, the use of those words causes some people to think it does, and that "drastically" reduces public consumption of the fish—a major industry in Alaska.

Morenus, Author And Lecturer, Is Taken By Death

Richard Morenus, author and lecturer, whose first book "Crazy White Man" was written while he lived in Escanaba, died recently in Chicago.

He was born in LaPorte, Ind., and attended Dartmouth College. His professional career began in Chicago with a copywriting job for an advertising agency.

For several years he wrote voluminously in New York City for radio dramatic shows, followed by an adventure in the Canadian wilds where he lived for six years. Returning to the States he married and with his wife, Nora, came to Escanaba where he wrote his first book.

His other works include "Dew Line," "Northland Adventure," "Alaskan Sourdough" and tales of action for children.

In Escanaba Morenus was employed for a time with Radio Station WDBC. Mr. and Mrs. Morenus were frends of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fernstrom of Escanaba, and the Fernstroms were informed of Morenus' death about two weeks ago.

North Central In Record Year

In 1967, North Central Airlines achieved the greatest passenger and cargo traffic in its 20-year history, had its highest earnings, and maintained its perfect safety record, Hal N. Carr, president, stated today in the company's annual Report.

Carr reported that the airline attained record revenues of $42,850,477, up $3,237,806 and eight per cent ahead of 1966. This gain in revenues was one of the largest for the company since operations began in 1948.

A record 2,347,371 passengers flew the route of the Northliners in 1967, up 14 per cent over 1966 which was the company's best previous year. Substantial increases in cargo were also achieved in 1967 as some 56,670,189 pounds of air freight, express, and mail were carried.

"Highlight of the year was North Central's entry into the jet age," Carr reported. "On April 1, the first Convair 580 prop-jets joined the Northliner fleet, and DC-9 fan jet service started in September. By the end of 1967, eight Convair 580's and three DC-9's were in scheduled operation. North Central will have an all jet-powered fleet late in 1968. The 10 DC-9's ordered by the company will be operating by July. Five more of the fan jets are on option.

"Management looks forward to increased traffic and revenues in 1968, together with a reduction in unit operating costs, as the efficiencies of more jet aircraft are realized. North Central enters its 21st year with confidence in the future and the assurance that 1968 will be another record year," Carr concluded.

Since inaugurating service in 1948, the airline has carried 16,479,000 passengers and flown 2,719,300,000 passenger miles without a single fatality or injury to pasengers or crew members.

North Central serves 90 cities in 11 Midwest states and Canada over a 7,000-mile route system.

Museum Building Plans Approved

Plans for an expansion of the Delta County Historical Museum in Ludington Park were approved by the Escanaba Planning Commission at its meeting Tuesday in the City Hall with Chairman Matt Smith presiding.

The Commission recommended to the Council that the city place the Historical Museum building expansion project on its capital improvement program.

The Delta County Historical Society over a period of several years has accumulated approximately $7,000 in its Museum expansion fund, and is asking the city to participate in financing the building project. The total cost is an estimated $14,500.

Robert Schmeling, Society president, Mrs. Robert Mosenfelder, Museum committee chairman, Erling Arntzen, treasurer, and Clint Dunathan of the Society appeared before the Planning Commission at a prior meeting to explain the need for the expansion and present the building plans.

The proposed expansion would double the floor space of the Museum, making it possible to accept additional items of local historical significance which have been offered by Delta County residents, and to properly display them to visitors.

The Museum building would be extended on the east side by an additional 38 feet. The present heating system has the capacity to heat the add i space, and the area would be sufficiently large to permit seating groups for programs in the Museum, it was explained.

The Society is continuing its appeal for contributions to the Museum expansion fund, and is asking that gifts(which are tax deductible) be addressed to Erling Arntzen, Treasurer, Delta County Historical Society Foundation, Escanaba Mich., 49829.

NCR Introduces New Computers

A new computer series developed by National Cash Register Co. which will bring computer costs nearer the financial needs of Upper Peninsula small businessmen was introduced formally Tuesday night at the House of Ludington.

Other introductory programs are scheduled Friday at Sault Ste Marie and next Tuesday at Marquette.

Lee Seckinger, branch manager of Escanaba's NCR office, said that the new computer series—The Century Series would have application in almost any type of business.

The problem with computers, explained Jerry Riedel, Escanabo, manager of electronic data processing sales, is that previously costs have been too high for the average businessman.

"This new series of computers open up the ability of people to get into electronic data processing where they couldn't afford it before," he said.

He said, for example, that costs for the Century 100 model starts as low as $2,000 per month in a lease program with NCR. Most businesses lease computers rather than purchase them outright, he said, because of the great investment in purchase of a machine.

Currently, only two businesses in Escanaba—Clarimont Transfer Co. and Harnischeger Corp. have actually installed computers in their Escanaba offices. Cimputer services are used by other businesses, however, through connections with data processing centers in Chicago and Green Bay.

Riedel said that NCR hopes that the new Century series will allow more businessmen to use computers in daily business operations.

"Every small businessmen is interested in computers, but they haven't been able to justify the costs," said.

Seckinger said that NCR has been able to reduce costs — anywhere from 30 50 percent — because of breakthroughs in manufacturing techniques and also in computer programming.

He said, for example, that mass production methods have replaced hand operations and also programs have been standardized for certain operations, thus saving the time and expense of individual programming.

"Basically," he pointed out, "processing accounts receivable is the same in every business."

The NCR Century Series computers operate in billonths of a second. One billionth of a second related to a second is as one second is to 30 years, said Riedel.s

Another feature of the new Century Series is that if the computer is just 11 percent operable it will be able to determine its own difficulty and print out where it failed to allow for rapid maintenance.

Jeeves Named SBA Manager

Robert F. Phillips, regional director, Small Business Administration, announced today the appointment of William Jeeves as branch manager of the Small Business Administration's Marquette Branch Office.

The vacancy was created by the leaving of Alden Smith, who received an appointment to a post in Formosa with the Federal Government as project officer attached to Army Tank Automotive Command.

Jeeves attended school in Detroit receiving his BS degree from Wayne State University in 1960 after serving four years in the Air Force. He started work with the Small Business Administration in 1962. He worked in the Marquette Branch Office for the past four years as a loan officer before being named branch manager.

The model for Thomas Sully's famous painting, "The Torn Hat," was his son Thomas Wilcocks Sully.

Israelis Blast Arab Hideouts

TEL AVIV (AP) — The Israeli army said today its troops blew up five Arab houses Tuesday in Kfar Rammun village in occupied Jordanian territory. Two of the houses belonged to village headmen who the army said admitted providing Arab commandos with food and shelter.

A garage in Beit Hanin village north of Jerusalem also was dynamited after troops uncovered a large arms cache there, the army said.

The action came after the army announced it had rounded up 18 Arab saboteurs over the weekend, including two commanders of the El Fatah terrorist organization.

In Lydda, near Tel Aviv, eight El Fatah members were sentenced by a military court to prison terms ranging from five to eight years. They were charged with espionage and carrying arms.

Israel and Jordan each accused the other today of shooting first in an artillery battle across the Jordan River Tuesday. A Jordanian spokesman said in Amman that Jordan did not fire at all.

Plan 'Messiah' For March 18-19

The third annual performance of the Easter portion of George Frederick Handel's "Messiah" sponsored by the Iron Mountain Federated Music Club will be presented on Monday and Tuesday evenings, March 18 and 19, at 8:15 p. m., in the Kingsford High School auditorium.

The singers and orchestra are directed by Dan Croci. Mrs. R. C. Hanna is the piano accompanist. Tickets are available from all music club members and money orders may be directed to the Iron Mountain Music Club, c/o Dickinson County Area Chamber of Commerce, Iron Mountain.

Pleads Innocent To Drunk Driving

Wilbert Goodman, 59, of Rapid River, who was arrested by State Police Tuesday afternoon and charged with driving under the influence of intoxicants, pleaded innocent today when arraigned in Escanaba Municipal Court. No date was set for hearing.

Officers said Goodman was arrested at 4 p. m., on U. S. 2 and 41 between Gladstone and Rapid River.

Hart Presses Iceless Seaway

WASHINGTON (AP) — Midwestern states should begin pressing for a St. Lawrence Seaway that is open the year-round and advertised worldwide, Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., said today.

Speaking at a Washington breakfast meeting of Great Lakes port and shipping officials, Hart said Congress has appropriated $75,000 for a study on how to keep the lake harbors ice-free for more months of the year.

"And now," he said, "we must press for a seaway promotional budget that will allow, probably for the first time, a shipping manager in northern Europe to find out that he is closer to Detroit than New York by the great circle route."

He said he did not expect a 12-month shipping schedule on the Great Lakes overnight, but he said a sound program could extend shipping through the thin-ice months, perhaps soon extending the season from the present eight months to nine or 10.

Hart also urged closer cooperation with Canada in stimulating seaway traffic.

Rhodesia Hangs Three Africans

SALISBURY, Rhodesia (AP) — The Rhodesian government hanged three Africans today after rejecting Queen Elizabeth II's order commuting their sentences to life in prison.

A guard pinned notices on the gate of Salisbury's central prison announcing the executions of the three men convicted of murder and terrorism.

The queen, still considered head of state by Rhodesia's rebel white minority government, commuted their sentences Saturday. But the appellate division of Rhodesia's high court, ruling on two of the cases Monday, held it was "not a personal decision by her majesty but by her government (in Britain). Her majesty is quite powerless in this matter. It is a source of great regret that her majesty has become involved."

Prime Minister Ian Smith declared independence from Britain in 1965, and Chief Justice Sir Hugh Beadle ruled it is the only government in Rhodesia with the power to exercise the prerogative of mercy.

The decision to go ahead with all three hangings was understood to have been reached at a six-hour Cabinet meeting Tuesday.

Funeral Rites Honor Colonel

MANISTIQUE — Full military rites and honors were accorded Col. Carl E. Peterson, native of Manistique, who was killed on Feb. 10 in Vietnam while serving with the U.S. Marine Corps, at funeral services here on Tuesday.

The service was held in the Bethel Baptist Church at 2 o'clock with the Rev. Robert Haring officiating, and burial was in Fairview Cemetery.

Miss Linda Sinnin was organist and the soloist was Mrs. Robert Haring.

Mrs. Chancey Hinkson, sister of Col. Peterson, was presented with the flag by Major General A. H. Adams.

The pallbearers were Lt. Col. G. Packard, Lt. Col. C. F. Bogg, Major E. N. Harwell, Capt. C. A. Jesse, Capt. G. D. Huntonn, and First Lt. R. B. Lambdin.

Honor guards were Major Genral A. H. Adams, Col. James Warrick, Col. Frank Taschowski, Col. L. R. Jillisky, Col. K. Dykes, Col. C. B. Burch, Lt. Col. J. Snapper, Lt. Col. H. J. Vuckoich, Major J. B. Pierce, Capt. C. C. Odgers and Major L. M. Silva.

The firing squad, from the Inspector-Intructor Staff of the U.S. Marines Reserve Training Corps, Green Bay, was under the command of Capt. Michael E. Brown, with Staff Sgt. Roy Richburg, Staff Sgt. Frank Miley, Staff Sgt. Franklin Wilson, Sgt. Robert Debotn, Sgt. Jerry Sly, Staff Sgt. George Wescott.

The honor guard and the pallbearers were from the U.S. Marine Training Command Corps, Glenview, Ill.

Fluoride Program

CARNEY NADEAU — The Carney-Nadeau PTA in recent meeting heard Mrs. Reuben Charlier announce that Mrs. Felix Verbisky will assist in the fluoride program and that about 100 children have signed up.

Mrs. Martha LaMack explained the various methods used in teaching remedial reading. Students from the first through the seventh grades are in the program. The PTA members visited the reading lab where they were shown the various types of equipment and instructional materials used for teaching reading.

Where's The Poverty?

The great uncertainty and soul searching in America about poverty was reflected in this week's meeting of the delegates of UPCAP (Upper Peninsula Committee For Area Progress) in Escanaba.

The person who listened to some of the delegates could hear expressions of doubt about the reality of poverty in the Upper Peninsula, and doubt about the need for expensive programs to aid the impoverished.

There were murmurs about shortages of employable persons in some U. P. communities, with the suggestion that this was some kind of proof that there was no poverty, because the impoverished could solve their own problems by taking jobs.

* * *

But the program presented for UPCAP delegates from throughout the Upper Peninsula by representatives of the six Community Action Agencies in the U. P. was a forceful thing that had to be accepted. These were people working with poverty and they said that it exists, they described it, and they told what they were doing about it. Some of the businessmen delegates said the CAP program presentation was the most moving thing they'd ever heard at an UPCAP meeting. Here was reality — a girl trying to succeed despite a dreadful family background — squalorous living — lack of education and the knowledge of how to find health — demeaning little traps into which humans had fallen or been cast by circumstances.

These are not statistics from a national manual which said that such-and-such a percentage of people in a sparse, rural situation like ours were living at the poverty level of income. These were descriptions of the problems of actual people and how CAP program was working to help them. Herein was the weakness of the report, stressing individual wants and lacking comprehensive dimensions of the problem.

* * *

Many of the persons at the meeting must have been impressed with the parallel of the Upper Peninsula's problem of identifying and helping its poor, and the national effort to help the American poor, and especially the nation's Negroes, who are the greatest racial example of it.

The President's Commission On Riots reported last week that mistreatment of the Negroes results from white racism. To put it in simplest terms racism is hate.

We are not suggesting that the affluent of the Upper Peninsula hate the poor, but they do not care about them to the point of strong social action to aid them. We have not, for instance, even acknowledged that the Upper Peninsula has impoverished people who should be aided.

* * *

Rural poverty is evasive. The Upper Peninsula, the CAP spokesmen said, shouldn't look for big city conditions of poverty when it examines its own state of impoverishment.

There won't be any flaming arrows coming out of Hannahville. No shooting or looting at Bay Mills. (Actually, though, the speakers said that if all the Upper Peninsula's impoverished could be brought together, as they are in big city ghettos, we could have a riot here in the Upper Peninsula.)

The state of poverty in the Upper Peninsula involves ignorance, lack of education, low income, disabilities, feelings and attitudes of despair, fear, incompetence and apathy.

* * *

Poverty hidden in rural areas is apt to be overlooked, where compression of the impoverished in a big city area dramatizes the condition and brings public attention — and sometimes a riot. Yet welfare casing rates 25 per cent of Upper Peninsulans as living on income that is less than satisfactory for the minimum needs of good health.

The public should be wary of turning its back on CAP activities because they turn up new problems when we already have so many. The community action speakers at UPCAP created a general conviction that the Upper Peninsula does have poor who are not being reached by other agencies and that they really do need aid and that it would be good business as well as humanity for government to supply it.

Wild Living and Slow Dying.

By DAVID POLING

An old-time Lent is no longer enough. A liturgical Lent, with its special services and worship intensity, must be only the starting ramp into the area of conflict and opportunity.

If we have learned anything from the days of Jesus' temptation in the Wilderness, it was His willingness to grapple seriously with the seductions, charm and brutality of the world.

We must deliver ourselves from a nostalgic, historical society approach to the Christian truth that Jesus turned people on. He gave them dimension and purpose, not in the stately Temple, but where the drums were beating, the boats launched. He knew the soccer crowd and the nursery school set. He visited easily with the Internal Revenue accountants. The young man who worried about his General Motors stock was a luncheon companion.

The Christian experience of Lent, if it is at all rooted and grounded in the work of Jesus Christ, is going to be as close to the wild living of Hell's Angels as it is to the slow dying in a nursing home.

The Christian message is not reserved for librarians or Holy Land pilgrims or black-suited clergy. It should and does swing easily with astronauts, check-out clerks, quarterbacks and opera stars. How strange and tragic it would be if the judgment of this generation should read that millions became closer to Christ and more distant from the Church!

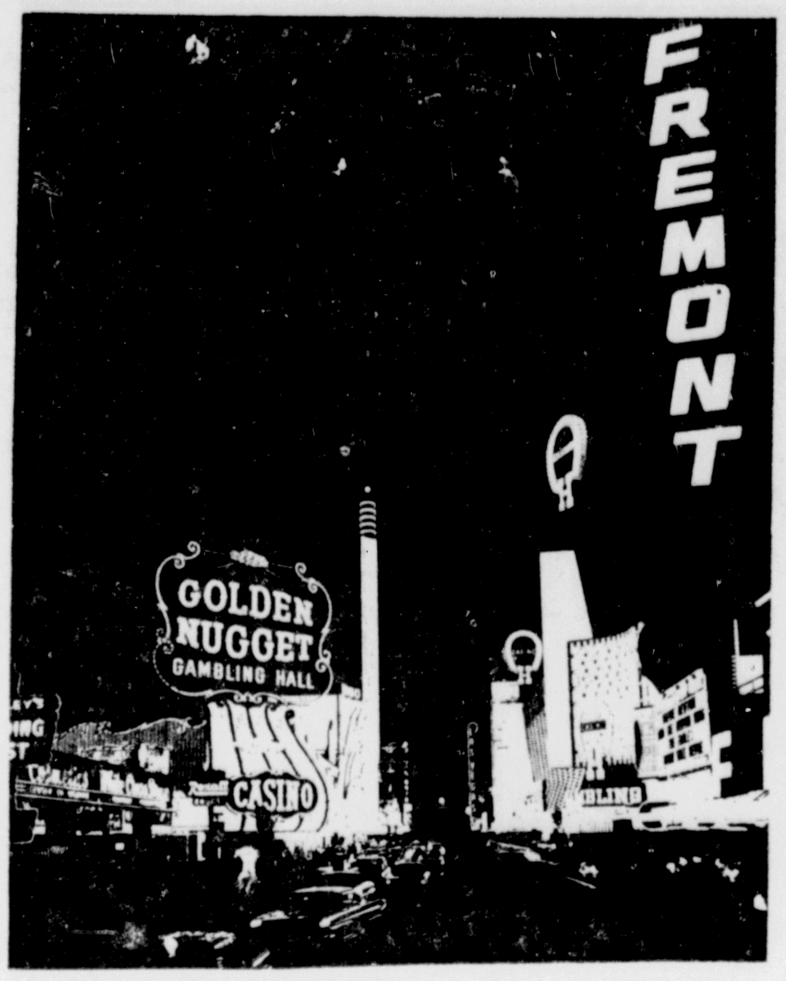
Dow Chemical Hikes Dividend

MIDLAND (AP)—Dow Chemical Co. increased its quarterly dividend by 5 cents a share, raising the rate from 55 to 60 cents.

The 55-cent rate had prevailed since the March quarter of 1967 and the increase is the fourth by Dow in the last five years.



A NICE PLACE to visit, but would you want to live there? Gambling is still very big business in Las Vegas, but things are changing, thanks to the impact of Howard Hughes. Wirephotos)

Along Las Vegas' "Strip"

Everyone Guesses On Hughes' Plans

By DICK KLEINER

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (NEA)—Unseen and practically unheard, Howard Hughes is increasing his control of Las Vegas and much of southern Nevada. His weapons are money and rumor, and, being wielded skillfully, they are potent.

Scarcely a day goes by here without some new action by the Hughes team — they buy something or announce something or make a pronouncement on something.

It seems obvious to all that Hughes' actions are part of some massive master plan. But nobody knows just what that plan is, and that is the second greatest mystery of all.

Even more intriguing, however, is the man himself. The questions being asked — and not definitely answered — about the billionaire are basic. For example: Is Howard Hughes alive?

The rumors that he was, indeed, dead had their beginnings shortly after it was announced that he had come to town. Then he said he was taking over the Desert Inn. As the story goes, his chief deputy — Robert Maheu (pronouncde Mayhew) — met with the attorneys for the sellers and presented a power of attorney, signed by Hughes. The document, however, was 10 years old.

* * *

Theoretically, Hughes was living upstairs in the Desert Inn. Maheu was asked to get a current power of attorney. He was unable to do so. Ultimately, the deal was made with the Hughes Tool Co., rather than with Hughes himself, thus circumventing the need for a power of attorney.

Why, the curious ask, was Maheu unable to get a new power of attorney? Because, they answer, Howard Hughes is no longer alive.

On the face of it, that conclusion is absurd. It would be impossible to keep the death of a man of Hughes' prominence quiet. Nevertheless, the rumor caught on in Las Vegas, a small town at heart where rumors flourish.

The rumors spread so widely, in fact, that the Hughes organization was forced to do something. They had Gov. Paul Laxalt talk to Hughes on the telephone, and the governor later said he had had a nice chat with Hughes — at least, he was told it was Howard Hughes.

* * *

That phone conversation is the only direct contact — if it was a genuine contact — that anyone has had with Hughes. Otherwise, it is Maheu and two or three other trusted aides who appear in public, carrying out the Hughes directives.

As for Hughes himself, he is just a shadowy figure. He has the two top floors in the Desert Inn. No one sees him. The two top buttons in the hotel's elevators have been replaced with locks; to reach Hughes' two floors, a key is required.

Reporters have tried everything to gain access, without success. They have talked to the women who clean the apartment. Yes, they say, they go upstairs. But they have never seen Hughes; he is always in another part of the suite when they appear.

* * *

Generally, Hughes ignores rumors, or is amused by them. But a close associate says that Hughes is physically well and is irked by these rumors of his ill health.

Why, then, if he is so annoyed, does he not make one public appearance to quash them? His public relations advisers have pleaded with him to do that, but he has so far refused.

What is behind his apparent need for seclusion? One source says he is afraid of a kidnaping—especially in Las Vegas, where people will do almost anything for a big haul. Others say it is just an eccentricity, an almost psychopathic urge for privacy. It has also been attributed to a hatred of reporters, dating back to the days when he was in aviation and felt that the press was stealing some of his secrets.

Howard Hughes

Whatever is behind it, it is iron-clad. Some people insist that Hughes has abandoned his no-show policy and has actually changed so much physically since he was last seen—it is 15 years—that he is now able to circulate freely without being recognized.

* * *

Someone who has seen him—an old and trusted friend—says that is ridiculous. He has changed, of course. He is now 62 (that, at least, is his official age) and has become gray, but he would be immediately recognized anywhere, this source insists.

So he stays upstairs in the Desert Inn, carefully directing the operations by which he is taking over a city.

Almost anywhere you go in southern Nevada, you see signs of Hughes' presence. Drive down the Strip in Las Vegas, and you see four big hotels which he has bought. Drive out of town, into the scrubby desert, and you see mile after mile of open land which he owns.

What is he planning to do? And why has he elected to settle here, when with his wealth he could go anywhere?

Nobody knows for sure, of course. Hughes likes it that way, enjoys the mystery that surrounds him and revels in the aura of confusion his mysterious dealings cause.

* * *

One deal which is on the record is typical—even though it is virtually settled, there is a vestigial mystery which keeps Las Vegas guessing.

Hughes wants to build a new jetport for Las Vegas. The Clark County commissioners are currently considering his proposal and nobody thinks they will turn it down. The deal boils down to a simple exchange—he'll build the jetport in Jean, some 40 miles away, in exchange for old McCarran Field, close to Vegas.

The county and city are ecstatic about the deal. They'll get a new field, big enough to accommodate the SSTs and they even harbor a hope that the airport could become the West Coast terminus of all international SST flights eventually. Hughes has proposed the building of a rapid transit line, linking the jetport and Las Vegas.

* * *

The mystery is, however—what does Hughes want with McCarran Field? He already owns some parts of it, but would wind up owning all.

As with everything else, the rumors fly.

One school of opinion believes he will erect a permanent World's Fair on the site. Another knows for sure that he is planning to build a massive structure to house all his various industrial operations—a self-contained plant-and-city in one structure. A third body of thinkers feels the airport would be an ideal site for Hughes Aircraft Co.

That's the way it is with everything Hughes does here. His every action breeds a counteraction of rumor.

Among the rumors which fly around the blackjack tables are these:

He is going to build a medical center in town to rival the Mayo Clinic.

* * *

He is going to buy all the hotels in Las Vegas and ultimately close down the gambling operations completely.

He wants to control all the private land in the state of Nevada (the state which has the highest percentage of public land, thereby leaving the smallest percentage of private land and making it easier for one man to control).

He is going to build gates across both ends of the Las Vegas strip and charge admission.

Most of these are ridiculous—or are they? With a man of Hughes wealth and eccentricity, anything is possible.

* * *

Why is he in Las Vegas? There must be a motive. Many have been advanced by Las Vegans, and probably one or more have some truth to them.

First, Hughes is known to have long enjoyed Las Vegas.

Second, Nevada has no state income tax (although that may change any year) and no state inheritance tax. For a man with his money, that is desirable.

Third, Las Vegas is open 24 hours a day. Hughes likes to operate that way, and finds that feature a convenience.

Fourth, Las Vegas is uniquely suited to his method of operation—it can be controlled by one man more easily than anyplace else. Who controls the Strip hotels, it is said, controls Las Vegas.

Fifth, Las Vegas is still imbued with pioneer spirit and great optimism about its potential. The state and local officials and the citizens believe this is where the future is—and the yare receptive to a man who thinks big.

And Howard Hughes thinks gigantic.

People, Events Of Yesteryears

From the Files of the Escanaba Daily Press

25 YEARS AGO

The Carnegie Public Library recently subscribed and started receiving "Facts On File," a weekly index and digest of world events.

Merton Jensen, chairman of the Boy Scout campaign committee, recently received a check for $744.28, contributed by the employees of the Area Engineers Office, the Merritt-Chapman and Scot organizations and four labor unions representing workers on the Escanaba ore project.

50 YEARS AGO

Sheriff Andrew Iverson deliberately released five prisoners from the county jail yesterday morning, but it was just for a short period. They were given the task of digging trenches in the vicinity of the jail so that the water could run off and not form in pools. And today — they may shovel snow.

There are many conventions that any good bridge player should keep in his tool kit. One of these is the two-club response to a no-trump opening to see if the no-trumper holds a four-card major suit. This convention is called "Stayman" after Sam Stayman of New York, the first to publicize it, but there are almost as many variations as there are bridge players.

We use our own form of Stayman combined with our Jacoby transfer, and almost every good player in the world employs some form of Stayman also.

In other words, it is a good convention but, like all good conventions, it should not be used with every hand.

In the Tri-State Regional at the famous Grossinger's Hotel in Liberty, N. Y., the mixed pairs event was won by Gilbert and Doris Brown. Today's hand shows one of their good scores. Doris opened one no-trump and Gil saw no reason to look for a 4-4 major fit because he had honors in every other suit. He just bid three no-trump and left Doris to struggle with it.

Doris won the first trick with dummy's ace of hearts and promptly lost the diamond finesse. West led a second heart to her queen and she led the nine of clubs, covered by the 10, queen and king. East couldn't lead another heart and shifted to the seven of spades. Doris played the queen and was delighted to find one finesse that worked. She led the eight of clubs and lost that finesse to the jack, but it didn't matter. She wound up with two spades, three hearts, two diamonds and two clubs for a satisfactory nine tricks.

It was particularly satisfactory when it turned out that four spades would be down two.

Ann Landers

Majority Rule For TV Doesn't Work

Dear Ann Landers: My wife and I tried unsuccessfully for six years to have a family. She became so depressed about her inability to have a child that our physician strongly recommended adoption and agreed to help us.

Six months ago the physician told us of an out-of-wedlock baby he was due to deliver and he asked if we wanted it. We jumped at the chance. The baby is now three months old, healthy, beautiful and has changed our lives completely.

Last week my wife began to complain of nausea in the morning and dizzy spells at night. Yesterday she went to the doctor. She is nearly three months pregnant. I was delighted with the news, but she is a nervous wreck. She insists she cannot manage two babies so close together and we must give up either the adopted baby or the newborn infant. She can't decide which, but she says it's got to be one or the other.

What do you say?—DOUBLE DAD

Dear Dad: Many women manage with two and even three babies less than a year apart. If you give your wife the encouragement she needs she will make it through this difficult period with flying colors. I promise you, a year from today she wouldn't take a million dollars for either of the babies, and please tell her I said so.

* * *

Dear Ann Landers: There are four children in our family, the oldest 17, the youngest 8. They all have different ideas when it comes to what to watch on TV. My husband is a sport nut. I like the documentaries and the good news programs.

Our 17-year-old says the best way to put an end to the nightly arguments is to let the majority rule, as this is the most democratic way. Naturally, this would assure victory for his choice as he and my husband and the 15-year-old boy would vote for the sports event. What do you say? — BATTLING BERTHA

Dear Bert: I endorse Sydney Hook's famous words, "The majority rule is not reasonable in a family of small children, a prison, or an institution of the feebleminded."

Sunday, sit down with the TV listings and at a family conference decide on the week's viewing. No one will be completely satisfied, of course, but each will get his first choice at some point during the week, and the family will have a reasonably balanced TV diet.

* * *

Dear Ann Landers: A certain woman in this office (I will call her Mary Do-Good) is forever coming around asking for a dollar to buy flowers for the office manager's mother, or a shower gift for the cashier's daughter, or a wedding gift for the girl in accounting, or a retirement gift or a funeral wreath or heaven knows what. Anyway, the list is endless and I am sick of it.

Is there a gracious way to get out of this sort of thing? What does a person say — especially when others are giving, even though reluctantly? — BLED WHITE

Dear White: There is nothing mandatory about kicking in for office collections. In fact I once heard it described as similar to "being nibbled to death by a duck." If you resent being asked for money so often, simply be truthful and say, "Sorry, but I'm not interested in this project. Its' not the principle of the thing — it's the money."

The oilbird is so-called because it can be rendered to provide cooking or lighting oil, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

PILLSBURY BAKE-OFF RECIPE

$5,000 FLOUR CATEGORY

MRS. LEE HOLCOMB — FARMINGTON, NEW MEXICO

TOFFEE BREAKS

- 1½ coups Pillsbury's Best All-Purpose Flour*
- 3 packets instant oatmeal
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon baking powder
- 1 cup butter, softened
- 2 tablespoons lukewarm water
- 1 package Pillsbury Buttercream English Toffee Frosting Mix

Glaze:
- 2 tablespoons butter, softened
- 3 tablespoons lukewarm water
- 2 bars (¾ oz. each) English Toffee candy crushed

Oven 350 degrees. About 48 Bars or Pieces

In large mixing bowl, combine flour, oatmeal, salt and baking powder. Using a pastry blender, cut in butter until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add 2 tablespoons water and 1 cup firmly packed dry frosting mix. Blend thoroughly. With floured fingers, pat onto greased 15 x 10-inch jelly roll pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 18 to 22 minutes until set and edges are lighlty browned. Spread glaze on hot cookies. Cool completely and break into pieces like peanut brittle.

Glaze: Combine the remaining frosting mix, butter and water, and mix as directed on package. Stir in crushed toffee candy.

* for use with Pillsbury's Best Self-Rising Flour, omit baking powder and salt.

Tip: 1¼ cups regular quick cooking oatmeal may be substituted for the packets of instant oatmeal.

Controversy Sizzles As Nuns Change Old Order

By GENE HANDSAKER

LOS ANGELES (AP) — They wear dresses. Some get permanent waves. They use their real names and sleep as late as they wish. So what's unusual?

The difference is that these are nuns—members of the schoolteaching Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. And they're involved in one of the hottest controversies sizzling anywhere in Roman Catholics' ferment over "renewal."

The sisters say the way they dress, the hours they keep and other changes are to update their 97-year-old order and help it serve the modern world.

But across town in the chancery office, 81-year-old James Francis Cardinal McIntyre, archbishop of Los Angeles, disapproves. He is known both as a parish builder and as a firm traditionalist.

In resolutions and letters to newspapers, many laymen, Franciscans, Jesuits and others heatedly take sides.

Says They're Fired

In the balance is whether most of 200 Immaculate Heart sisters will return next fall to their teaching posts in 36 parochial schools of the Los Angeles archdiocese.

As matters stand—at an impasse—they well may not, considering themselves fired by Cardinal McIntyre. Some parochial school doors could close and hundreds of Catholic youngsters be thrown into public schools.

What's the nub of the hassle?

For one thing, dress. No longer in ankle-length, dark blue habits with starched white headgear and black veils, sisters stroll the campus of Immaculate Heart College in dresses so contemporary you can't tell nuns from students or visiting mothers.

The college, its 14 beautifully landscaped, tranquil acres sloping steeply into the Hollywood Hills, is a girls' liberal arts school with an enrollment of 1,100. Its convent is mother house or headquarters for the Immaculate Heart order, most of whose 560 sisters teach in Catholic schools of the Southwest.

Visit Beauty Parlors

Some sisters are visiting beauty parlors and getting permanent waves for the first time in their lives.

Most have dropped ecclesiastical Latin names for the names they had since infancy. Sister Mary Humiliata, the order's vital and gracious mother general, for example, is now Sister Anita Caspary.

No longer do sisters rise invariably at 5:20 a.m. and, in the experience of one, "spend the first three hours of the day in a fog. It was possible to sleep through morning prayers. I speak from experience."

Gone is the no-conversation "grand silence" among sisters from 9 p.m. until after breakfast next morning. Gone is the arbitrary 10 p.m. lights out. Nuns set their own schedules for retiring, rising, praying, meditating and attending Mass. The only rule on late-night talk is thoughtfulness for others.

"Seek Renewal"

The sisters announced their experimental changes last October, saying they were in keeping with Pope Paul VI's exhortation to Catholic orders "to examine and renew their way of life and to engage in wide-ranging experimentation in achieving this renewal."

Gradually the word got out that the cardinal disapproved, that he even had fired the tradition-defying schoolteachers.

Sister Anita, the mother general, wrote 7,500 parents: "After 82 years in the archdiocese of Los Angeles, the sisters of the Immaculate Heart are being asked to stop teaching your children in the parochial schools."

Cardinal McIntyre issued a statement denying that he had dismissed the sisters. It did say they had been asked to determine how many wish to remain teachers "as religious"—that is, as members of a religious order.

Up To Sisters

"Sure he has fired them," says a male instructor at Immaculate Heart College. "The issue is whether institutions of the Church can be democratized or whether the old Roman law will prevail. The cardinal stands for the old Roman law."

The cardinal has said "the final decision on the future steps to be taken by the Immaculate Heart sisters resides with the sisters themselves."

Deputy Fired

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Carl Koch, 33, a former Washtenaw County sheriff's sergeant who was demoted to deputy last week, was fired Tuesday by Sheriff Douglas J. Harvey.

The sheriff said Koch was fired because of refusal to make out an accident report involving Koch's private auto and a scout car in the county jail lot.

Court Affirms Police Right To Seize Evidence

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court has underscored the right of police to seize evidence that is in their "plain view" and to use it at trial, even though they had no search warrant.

In an unsigned opinion the robbery conviction of James H. Harris of the District of Columbia was upheld over his claim that police violated the search provisions of the 4th Amendment by taking the victim's automobile registration card from another automobile identified as the get-away car.

The car was impounded by the police as evidence and it was towed to a lot where an officer found the registration card on the metal stripping over the door.

The court took the view "that the discovery of the card was not the result of a search of the car, but a measure taken to protect the car while it was in police custody."

At one point Harris had won a reversal in a federal court here. He was sentenced to two to seven years.

In other actions today, the court:

—Ruled that the New England Electric System must divest itself of its gas utility subsidiaries. The ruling backed the Securities and Exchange Commission and reversed the U.S. Circuit Court in Boston.

—Held that government extension of the time for filing an income tax return delays start of the six-year period in which the government may prosecute for evasion and other tax crimes. The case came to the high court from Indianapolis. It should settle a question that the government says turns up in 10 to 20 cases a year.

Judge Refuses To Bar Newsmen

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — A judge has thrown out a move to keep reporters out of a pretrial hearing under the American Bar Association's Reardon report.

"The Reardon report isn't law," U.S. Dist. Court Senior Judge Caleb M. Wright said this week.

A lawyer for one of four men charged with violating laws against shipping uninspected meat across state lines had sought to stop alleged statements made by the defendants from going to the jury.

He asked Wright to bar the press under the terms of the report, which would sharply limit the release of pretrial information by judges, lawyers and policemen and would make newspapers subject to contempt action for printing certain information.

Wright said: "We've had no trouble with the reporting by our press. The press has been very cooperative."

Elected To Four Posts By Write-In

DURHAM, Maine (AP) — Mrs. Constance Footman has been re-elected town clerk—and also treasurer, tax collector and constable by write-in.

There were no formal candidates for the posts decided at the annual town meeting in this community of about 1,000 residents, and only one other name was written in.

Several Maine communities have officers serving in a number of positions.

In the 160-person community of Vienna, Fritz Eaton, 84, was elected to his 62nd one-year term as town clerk.

SPEC. 4 Richard Norby is home on a 30 day leave after a one year tour of duty in Vietnam. He has signed up for another tour in Vietnam and will report in Saigon on April 1. Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Norby, 516 N. 20th St., Escanaba.

Coleman Young Named To Lead Senate Demos

LANSING (AP)—Senate Democrats Tuesday chose Sen. Coleman Young of Detroit as their new minority floor leader to succeed Sen. Sander Levin of Berkley, the Democrat party's new state chairman.

Minority leader Raymond Dzendzel of Detroit said Levin indicated several weeks ago that he wished the caucus to choose a new floor leader in view of his added responsibility as state chairman.

Dzendzel said the selection of Young, a Negro, was unanimous.

The floor leader serves as second in command to the leader and in most cases argues the party's position on the floor on controversial issues.

Board Adopts Type A Program, Speech Therapy

The Gladstone Board of Education has entered into agreements with the Delta-Schoolcraft Intermediate school board to provide a Type A special education program for educable children and also approving use of the James T. Jones School for a speech therapy program.

Action was taken at the board's regular meeting Monday night.

Supt. Wallace Cameron said that the special education program will begin in the Gladstone schools this fall. He said he already has a "verbal agreement" with a teacher for the program.

Financing for the program will come from the Intermediate School District from a special education one-mill tax approved for special education courses and from state sources.

The James T. Jones School will be used this summer as one of three service centers for the speech therapy course to be directed by Leona Dougherty, speech therapist at Bay de Noc Community College. The 10-week course also will run at the community college in Escanaba and at Manistique Area High School.

Adult Interest

Cameron reported that a recent survey indicates 60 persons are interest in completing requirements for high school diplomas under the adult education diploma program which will begin this fall in conjunction with the Community School program of the Mott Foundation.

Another 82 persons have indicated an interest in "refresher" courses in an adult education program.

Cameron said the diploma program, sponsored by the State of Michigan through a federal grant, will not require charging of fees, but there will be fee charges for the adult education program.

Robert Richards, mathematics instructor at the high school, is in Lansing for a two-week course at Michigan State University and will direct the Community School program. Richards will also spend four weeks observing similar programs at Gwinn, Iron Mountain, Kingsford and Manistique before beginning work in Gladstone.

Purpose of the Community School program is to make maximum use of school buildings by opening the buildings for organized community activities during non-school hours.

In other action by the board, requests by Carl Backstrom and David Scherff for leaves of absence next year to continue their education were granted providing suitable replacements can be obtained. Backstrom recently received a National Science Foundation fellowship from Michigan State University.

Cameron also was authorized to proceed with modernization of first floor locker rooms at the high school and also the construction of two administrative offices.

Pop Machine OK'd

Reports were heard from Donald Pfotenhauer on duties of the Athletic Director; by John Norton, principal, on progress of pupil scheduling; and by Cameron on the recent teachers' meeting with the Task Force of Northern Michigan University.

The board also authorized coaches William Wood and Backstrom to attend the state basketball tournament at East Lansing this month; approved, on a trial basis, the request of the Student Council for the installation of a pop machine in the commons area of the new high school; and approved the equipment list presented by the Athletic Dept. for the track team.

Three members of the board, Jerrold Becvar, Robert Hupy and William Swenson, were appointed to review the school budget to be presented to the County Allocation Board in April.

Lutheran Women Lenten Retreat Here Thursday

Lutheran Church Women of First Lutheran Church will hold a Lenten Retreat at the church Thursday beginning at 1:30 p.m. All area Lutheran churches will participate in the retreat and anyone else interested is welcome to attend.

The theme of the retreat is, "The Emmaus Walg," and Mrs. Peter Laaninen, of Perkins, will be the soloist.

Briefly Told

Volunteer Firemen will hold a regular meeting at the Fire Hall at 7 p.m. today.

Gladstone Lodge 396, F & AM will hold a regular Communication at the Masonic Temple Thursday at 7:30 p.m. Visiting Masons are welcome to attend.

Charlee P. Meyers, 601 Wisconsin Ave., was ticketed by Gladstone police Tuesday for failing to yield the right of way after a minor accident at 11:40 a.m. at the intersection of Michigan Ave. and 6th St. There were no injuries.

H. G. Stenlund Dies Suddenly

Herman G. Stenlund, 71, of Rapid River, died suddenly at St. Francis Hospital at 8:45 a.m. Tuesday. He had been a patient at the hospital.

Mr. Stenlund was born March 9, 1896, in Medle, Sweden, and came to the United States in 1915. He married Mandy Gustafson on Aug. 15, 1920.

He had been the proprietor of Herman's Garage in Rapid River, retiring in 1967. He was a member of Calvary Lutheran Church.

Survivors include his wife; three daughters, Mrs. Owen (Ethel) Short of East Lansing, Mrs. Clifford (Doris) Malnor of Marquette and Mrs. E. T. (Dorothy) Reese of St. Claire Shores; three sons, Lloyd of Rapid River, Harold of West Allis, Wis., and Ralph of Milwaukee; 14 grandchildren and several brothers and sisters in Sweden.

Friends may call at the Anderson-Johns Funeral Home after 4 p.m. Thursday. Complete funeral services will be held at Calvary Lutheran Church at 11 a.m. Friday with Rev. George Olson officiating.

Burial will be in Rapid River Cemetery. The body will be taken to the church one hour before the service.

Obituary

JAMES GREENLUND

Funeral services for James Greenlund were held at Calvary Lutheran Church at 11 a.m. today with Rev. George Olson officiating. Burial was in Rapid River Cemetery. Pall bearers were Andrew Nelson, Edward Johnson, John Sundberg, Richard Carroll, Joseph Stemac and Daryl Nelson.

Lenten Topic Is: Who Is Caesar?

Midweek Lenten Services at First Lutheran Church will be held each Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. and will feature dialogue sermons. The sermons, entitled, "For the Sake of the People," will relate the Gospel to war, poverty, and discipleship.

William Fossum, Ellis Movalson, Pastor Reuben Carlson and others are scheduled to participate in this weeks topic entitled, "Who is Caesar and What do We Owe Him?" Everyone interested is encouraged to attend any, or all, of these services.

what does A&P stand for?

(Besides The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co., Inc.)

Fairness, honesty, dependability and quality.
Our founder established these business guides for A&P over 100 years ago.

It is from this basic foundation that so many of our current-day policies have grown:

Our Raincheck policy, for example, which assures you that you will never miss out on an advertised item.

Our policy of packaging meats, that guarantees that the side you can't see is equal to or better than the side you can see.

Our complete and unconditional guarantee of anything you buy at A&P, no matter who makes it.

Our dedication to quality in the production of our own brands. Quality standards so high that we guarantee any product bearing the A&P Seal is equal to or better than the nationally famous brands.

You can probably sum it up in one word, "CARE." We care about you.

Julie Nixon Hits The Campaign Trail

EXETER, N.H. (AP) — For nearly three hours, Julie Nixon has been shaking hands with hundreds of strangers.

Her cheek muscles strain from smiling. Her lips are dry. Her calves ache from standing, yet she remains poised and alert. Outwardly she seems to bubble. She is standing in a receiving line in a small basement room of the Exeter Inn in New Hampshire.

Hundreds of potential voters pass in front of her: a retired mill worker, middle-aged man on crutches, a short, wiry barber, an old lady with smeared eye make-up who shakes her hand, then pats her cheek.

"Hello, it's nice to see you," Julie Nixon says for the 300th time that day, the 1,000 time that week.

Can't Relax

She brushes her shoulder-length chestnut hair away from her face. She could turn around and watch her mother, her 21-year-old sister Tricia and herself on closed-circuit television, but she can't move out of line. She can't sit down or lean against the wall or shift her hips. She can't leave. She can't relax.

Here in New Hampshire 19-year-old Julie is representing her father, Richard Milhous Nixon, who wants to be president of the United States.

And because she wants her father's dream to come true, Julie Nixon is willing to go against her own nature and expose herself to the hazards and the limelight of a political campaign.

"I don't like the publicity and hate answering personal questions," she says, "but I'll do anything to help my father."

Tomorrow she'll be Julie Nixon, a shy sophomore at Smith College in Northampton, Mass. She'll be sitting in history classes, studying in the library, and taking her turn at waiting on dining room tables, a custom for all Smith girls. Some evenings, she will spend seven miles away at Amherst College with her fiance, David Eisenhower, grandson of former president Dwight D. Eisenhower.

But as much as she'd like to, she doesn't lead a normal life and she's not a normal college sophomore.

More Restricted

Julie has grown up faster than most young women. And she's been more restricted. She can't even consider wearing a miniskirt. She doesn't voice publicly her opinions on sex, drugs, money and men—subjects all college girls discuss.

Yet, how does a girl react when she hears her father criticized? At the Exeter reception, did Julie hear the woman who said, "Well, they're nice girls, but their father will never win," or the lady in Laconia, who said, "Well, I'll shake his hand in February, but I'll be damned if I'll help him in March."

Does it bother her to hear her father called "Tricky Dick" or to see his picture on a billboard captioned: "Would you buy a used car from this man?"

Bothers Her

Of course it bothers her, she says, and she's been hearing this since she was 12 years old when her father ran against John F. Kennedy for the 1960 presidency.

Sometimes, as Julie drives from Smith to a dozen New Hampshire towns and cities, she says she recalls last Christmas vacation when she spent three evenings with her father.

"What do you think, Julie?" he asked. "I know it will be harder on you and David if I run."

Julie says, "I knew he had to do it." She says she understands that undefinable drive which makes her father want to be president. In the end, she was the one in the family who most urged him to run.

Shy Girl

Although she reacts quickly like her father, and is naturally curious, she is still a shy girl who has agreed to expose herself to politics.

Julie was too young to understand the issues involved in the 1960 campaign, but she's older now. She hopes that if her father wins the Republican nomination in Miami Beach next August, her own determination and stamina will have contributed to his success.

CLASSIFIED ADS COST LITTLE BUT DO A BIG JOB

"GRANNY" WILCOX celebrated her fifth birthday in a covered wagon and her 105th in the "jet age." She outlived three husbands and 10 of her 13 children. Granny was called "Isabel" back in Missouri and as a very young girl helped her daddy split rails and pitched in with the rest of the family to survive the "hard times," following the Civil War. Granny, now living at the Brook Hollow Nursing Home in Dallas, says she started smoking a corncob pipe at the age of 10. She says she smokes two packs of cigarettes a day now and enjoys a cigar now and then. (AP Wirephoto)

Goal Is Effective Speech

By ARTHUR P. BRIEN

A shop foreman finds that his orders are often misunderstood.

A mother of schoolchildren cannot express her idea effectively at P. T. A. meetings.

A forest ranger has difficulty making clear and concise reports.

These are a few examples of people who may be helped by a study of more effective communication currently being held on Monday evenings at Bay de Noc College.

Speechcraft is a course in effective speech given by Toastmasters Clubs throughout the country as a public service. The course consists of two parts, a period of instruction by experienceed members of Toastmasters, followed by a program of both impromptu and prepared speeches.

Students of the course are encouraged to participate in the latter part of the program. In the course being conducted by the Bay de Noc Club, student participation has developed to such an extent that only the instruction and evaluation are being done by Toastmaster members.

Typical Meeting

Speechcraft in its fifth meeting Monday night gave students an opportunity to participate with prepared speeches, on subjects of their choice. For example:

Dick Geiss chose as his topic "The Forgotten Man—the Poor Whites,"; Joseph Vogt, game biologist, discussed "Conservation-Pesticides"; D. Phalen, "Don't get caught Between," and Pearl Royer "Knit One, Purl Two."

SPEECHCRAFT STUDENTS have one major reason for taking the course. They want to become more effective public speakers. Along the way they are taught that they must be enthusiastic about their subject to make it interesting to an audience. Two students (left) Ernest Guenette, who is employed by Mead Corp. and (right) James Walker, conservation officer, put their lessons into practice. (Daily Press Photo)

"Wizard Of Ahs"

The impromptu talks, called Table Topics, gave the program its greatest variety and human interest. During this period participants may be asked to speak for two minutes or less on a wide range of subjects such as our nation's foreign policy, or how to get along with your mother-in-law.

Some find the impromptu talk quite challenging, as did the schoolteacher who was accustomed to speaking to first graders. Those who volunteer for a prepared speech of three to five minutes may have their talks evaluated by members of the club.

One phase of this critique is by a "Wizard of Ahs," who counts the number of audible pauses each speaker is guilty of. A grammarian points out the most noticeable errors in pronunciation, grammar, and sentence structure. Other members call attention to both the strong and weak points of the speech, All criticism is intended to be constructive and is given in a spirit of friendly helpfulness.

Thirty - One Enrolled

Those who complete the course on March 25 will receive certificates from Toastmasters International. This is the first presention of the program by the local club. Its members are well pleased with the response, and consider repeating it if there is sufficient interest.

Toastmasters generally agree with William Feather who wrote, "One type of opportunity is as common tody as ever, and that is the opportunity to improve ourselves."

Enrolled in the Speechcraft Course are:

Mrs. Blanche Christie, Miss Marian Oliver, Mrs. Pearl Royer, Robert Casey, Harvey Pierson, Leroy Hamilton, Leroy Jacobson, Kenneth Wicklander.

Ernest Guenette, Francis Lancour, Eugene Tourangeau, Howard Acker, David Phalen, Richard Richer, Kenneth West, Gerald Bergeon, Carlton Mineau.

William Fossum, James Higgens, Joseph Voght, James Walker.

Gene Kauffman, Casimier Wojakowski, F. F. Freiseis, Harold Chenier, Richard Geiss, John Cote, Paul Horst, Bob Lannan, Norman Chenier and John Olinger.

Sault Bridge Has Traffic Increase

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—February traffic over the International Bridge at Sault Ste. Marie was the highest for the month since the bridge was opened, the Bridge Authority reports. The 25,939 crossings during the month was a 6 per cent increase over February of last year. Bridge traffic also increased 9 per cent in January over the same month in 1967.

More Teachers Press Pay Hike

By The Associated Press

Teachers throughout Oklahoma and in Manchester, N.H., take a holiday from schools today to press salary demands. Classroom walkouts continued in Florida and Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Oklahoma Education Association's "emergency convention" began less than 24 hours after Gov. Dewey Bartlett and legislative leaders agreed on a $37 million tax and school financing program aimed at averting a teachers strike.

Bartlett and a delegation of lawmakers appear before the statewide teacher's meeting in Oklahoma City to explain the program that would give a $1,300 pay boost to the state's 27,000 teachers over a three-year period.

A majority of the 600 public school teachers in Manchester voted Tuesday to stay away from classes today in protest over salaries. Officials said school would be held despite the walkout.

Girl Slain When Father Mistakes Her For Prowler

DETROIT (AP)—A 3-year-old girl who made her way down to her parents' basement bedroom early today was shot and killed by her father who said he mistook her for a prowler.

Sandra Bledsoe was dead on arrival at Ford Hospital.

Rudolph Bledsoe, 41, told police he and his wife were awakened early today by noises in the house. He got his pistol and said that as the door knob to his bedroom turned, the weapon discharged. The bullet hit the little girl in the head.

Negroes Go To Selma Runoff

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Three Negro candidates have won places in Democratic primary runoff elections for seats on the Selma City Council.

But the apparent solidarity of Negro voters, who are outnumbered in Selma, was unable to win a runoff berth for the Rev. L.L. Anderson in Tuesday's party primary race for mayor.

Mayor Joe Smitherman, 38, a white businessman who took office just four months before Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. launched the 1965 Negro voting rights drive here, won renomination with 5,969 votes. Anderson, a Baptist minister active in civil rights work, had 2,950, while John Day, a white chiropractor, got 81.

Negroes still in the running for city council seats are Edwin Hill Moss, a 51-year-old clerical worker for the Catholic Fathers of St. Edmund; Marius J. Anderson, a radio and television announcer, and the Rev. Lorenzo Harrison. Each was in a race with several white opponents.

Policemen Patrol High School Halls

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP) — Four policemen patrolled the halls of Mount Clemens High School Tuesday in the wake of an after-school disturbance in which a 14-year-old white youth was beaten by several Negro pupils.

There were no untoward incidents Tuesday.

Authorities said Monday's disturbance was about a block from the school and was apparently triggered by a previous altercation between a white youth and a Negro at the school.

Policemen were requested by school authorities for hall duty Tuesday.

Barnard Plans 3rd Transplant

NEW YORK — (AP) — Dr. Christiaan Barnard says he plans to discharge Dr. Philip Blaiberg, the world's only living heart transplant recipient, from the hospital when he returns to South Africa next week.

And when Dr. Blaiberg is sent home, Dr. Barnard says, he plans to perform a third heart transplant "soon—pretty soon."

Dr. Barnard, who performed the first human heart transplant, discussed his plans after reporting on his two transplants to doctors and students at Cornell University Medical College Tuesday night.

Although he has no specific candidate for a third operation, Dr. Barnard said he hopes to do another operation soon "because I think I'll be able to send this patient home pretty soon. I hope to discharge him when I get back."

Dr. Barnard is scheduled to return to Capetown next Wednesday.

Nearly 5,000 GM Workers Striking

DETROIT (AP) — Strikes continued today at three General Motors Corp. Chevrolet assembly plants and one parts depot, as the United Auto Workers Union makes its stretch drive to get local contracts at GM bargaining units.

New agreements reached Tuesday left only 15 of 168 local bargaining units and parts warehouses without a three-year at - the - plant working agreement, which supplements the national pact reached at GM last year.

Almost 5,000 UAW workers were on strike at GM today. The company laid off another 5,500 workers at Fisher body plants, which supply the three strikebound assembly plants.

One assembly plant in Lordstown, Ohio, remained shut down by a strike after skilled tradesmen defeated a tentative settlement by a five - vote margin.

Alaska Elephant Poses Problems

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — Mrs. Sammye Taplin has an elephant which wears red wool socks and mukluks to keep its feet warm.

Mrs. Taplin also has a problem—the elephant eats as much as two horses, weighs 1,200 pounds and is growing.

It was 700 pounds ago when Mrs. Taplin adopted an 18-month-old elephant won from an Anchorage supermarket in a sales contest.

Stocks Rise In Active Trading

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market advanced vigorously early today in a smart technical rebound. Trading was active.

Gains outnumbered losses by better than 4 to 1.

The Dow Jones Industrial Average rose 6.01 to 833.04.

Control Data opened on a block of 30,000 shares, up 2⅞ at 105 and increased its gain subsequently.

Scientific Data gained more than 3, Republic Corp. and Royal Duth 2. Itek and Campbell Red Lake dropped 2 each.

Emphasis was on the glamor stocks in the computer, conglomerate and other growth fields which have taken the worst battering during the long decline.

Analysts saw nothing particular in the overnight news to trigger a rally but ascribed it mainly to technical factors such as short covering which brought sharp recoveries to some of the volatile issues in the final minutes of trading Tuesday.

The market was seen to be in at least a temporarily oversold condition as it neared another support area in the averages.

Tuesday, the Associated Press Average of 60 Stocks fell 1.0 to 301.1.

Pueblo Letter Action Argued

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some Senate leaders disagree on how the United States should respond if an appeal allegedly signed by captured crewmen of the Navy intelligence ship Pueblo proves to be genuine.

The appeal, made in a letter via North Korean officials, is under study by President Johnson to determine whether it is authentic.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said Tuesday he had not been informed whether the White House considers valid the appeal for a U.S. apology to North Korea to gain release of the 82 surviving crew members or whether it is regarded as a fraud.

"I would want to have every possible assurance and guarantee that these men were freed, or on the verge of being freed, before we make any commitment in response to this letter," Mansfield said.

He previously had said he would be willing to have the United States admit the ship intruded into North Korean territorial waters—although he said this would be false—if that was the price of getting her crew released.

Chairman Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., of the Senate Armed Services Committee said in a separate interview he wants to do everything possible to get the crew released. But he said he would not concede, as the North Koreans demand, that the ship was seized in North Korean waters.

"My heart goes out to these men who have been imprisoned," he said. "But I do not think we can base our policies on the fact that they are suffering indignities and humiliations as prisoners."

The letter allegedly signed by the crew members said they had been treated humanely. Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said he doesn't know whether the letter represents the views of the Pueblo sailors.

"If it is a genuine letter, it seems to me that it is offering us a way out of a bad situation," he said. "I think we ought to get off the hook there if we can. We've got enough troubles elsewhere."

Democrats Want More Space For Lansing Offices

LANSING (AP) — Minority Senate Democrats, irked over "cubbyhole" offices, are considering putting pressure on majority Republicans to get more space for senators and staff members.

One irate Democrat said Tuesday that a motion to boycott committee work was pending before the caucus. Minority leader Raymond Dzendzel of Detroit said the idea was discussed, but that no motion had been made.

"We've been thrust into a cubbyhole and some of us are disturbed about it," Dzendzel said, adding that 18 Democrats and their staffs share five offices.

"We feel that something has to be done and we have the power to stop them in many areas," Dzendzel said.

There are 20 Republicans in the 38-man Senate, where 20 votes are required for passage of a bill. On some issues, such as the pending lower court reorganization bill, a two - thirds vote is required.

BOY SCOUTS Howard Willyard and Mike Elliott of the Chieftan Patrol, Troop 414, sponsored by the Teamsters of Escanaba, use a tobaggon as a windbreak while cooking soup in one of five tests at the Scout Klondike Derby at the Gladstone Golf Club. Flint Approves Open Housing FLINT (A) — A second recount indicates that Flint's new open housing ordinance has survived a referendum aimed at repealing it by a 30 - vote margin out of more than 40,000 votes cast.

It is believed the first time in the United States that an ordinance to ban racial discrimination in real estate transactions has survived a public vote.

Following a second recount by the Genesee County Board of Canvassers of votes cast in the Feb. 20 balloting, the ordinance was declared to have passed by a vote of 20,170 to 20,140.

An earlier recount has declared the measure approved, 20,172-20,129.

The referendum was initiated by a petition drive after the ordinance was passed by the Flint City Commission last fall.

Exhibit Of City Calendar Art Is Set For Library

A special exhibit of black and white drawings and paintings of local scenes by local artists will open at Carnegie Public Library on Monday.

Howard Smale, city administrative assistant, said all of the entries in the Escanaba report-calendar picture contest will be placed on display. Twelve of the pictures were selected for covers for the report-calendar which has received much favorable comment.

The drawings will be on display for several weeks, and will provide an opportunity for local citizens to see Escanaba scenes as interpreted by local artists.

Snow Sports Give Big Mac Traffic February Record

ST. IGNACE (AP) — Winter sports activities and good driving weather boosted Mackinac Bridge traffic and revenue in February to the highest figures ever recorded for the second month of the year.

Prentiss M. Brown, chairman of the Mackinac Bridge Authority, said 32,367 vehicles crossed the bridge last month, compared with 29,734 a year ago.

Revenue totaled $162,134 for the month, compared with $147,439 for the same period last year.

Brown credited the increases largely to passenger cars pulling snowmobile trailers.

Five Michigan Soldiers Killed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Five Michigan Army men originally listed as missing in action in Vietnam now are listed as killed in combat, the Defense Department reported Tuesday.

They are Spec. 4 Jay C. Dyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Buford Dyer of Dearborn Heights; Pfc. Douglas J. Burdick, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Burdick of Detroit; Pfc. Gerald A. Huczek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huczek of Roseville; Pfc. Marvin H. Jones Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin H. Jones Sr. of Mount Clemens, and Pfc. Dennis P. Chancy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Clancy of Royal Oak.

In addition, Marine Cpl. James F. Baucom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Baucom of Lapeer, was listed as dead of nonhostile causes.

Hoist Burns; 21 Men Trapped In Louisiana Mine

CALUMET, La. (AP) — Twenty-one salt miners were trapped 1,200 feet underground early today after fire damaged a hoist in a mine on the Louisiana coast, a spokesman at the Cargill Salt Mines here said today.

"We don't know how much danger they are in," said a woman at the company's switchboard. "We do not have any communication with them."

The men were trapped in a salt dome under Belle Isle, some 14 miles south of here on the southeast Louisiana coast.

The fire department at Morgan City rushed a rescue team to the mine after the company reported that fire broke out at midnight, trapping the men.

"We believe that the fire is out now," the company spokesman said. "We did have a fire which damaged a hoist, and that's why we can't get the men out."

Advisor's Report Rips Vietnamese

In an experiment on graft curtailment, U.S. advisers moved to Tan Son Nhut airport in Saigon to work elbow-to-elbow with Vietnamese officials.

The result: The Vietnamese government collected 740,000 piasters in customs duties for the first seven months of 1967 without close surveillance; took in 3.9 million piasters in the next three months working under the eyes of U.S. advisers.

In his recommendations to AID, the adviser listed 17 types of corruption and said "the list could go on indefinitely."

His examples included:

—"The court officials who can keep a person locked up for months on technical, trumped-up charges until a payoff is made, or who can secure the release of a tried and convicted criminal upon a similar, but higher payoff."

—"The police officials whose 'check points' are synonymous with 'shakedown points.' "

—"The government official who refuses to approve aid overseas training participants until he has received a personal fee from the prospective participant."

—"The customs official who sells to the highest bidder the privilege of holding down for a specified time the position where the graft and loot possibilities are the greatest."

—"The very high officials who condone, and engage in smuggling, not only of dutiable merchandise, but undercut the nation's economy by smuggling gold and worst of all, that unmitigated evil—opium and other narcotics."

Crusaders Tip Newberry On Fisher's Late Bucket

Tuesday Result
Holy Name 59, Newberry 57
Game Thursday
8:15—Gladstone vs. Manistique

GLADSTONE — Holy Name forward, Steve Fisher, made the most important shot of the night and, perhaps, of his career as he sank a 12 foot jump shot with only 3 seconds remaining in the game to give the Crusaders a 59-57 decision over the Newberry Indians in district tourney action last night.

The tournament resumes Thursday night when the host Gladstone Braves tangle with the Manistique Emeralds. The championship will pit Holy Name against the winner of the Gladstone-Manistique contest on Saturday night.

Holy Name fell behind in the first quarter, 12-9. They used a full court press to gain possession of the ball but could not put it through the hoop after they got it. Junior Tom Creten did a good job on the boards to keep the Crusaders close.

In the second quarter the Holy Name attack came alive. Terry Dufour, 6 foot 4 inch Holy Name center, used every variety of shot to drop in seven field goals good for 14 points in the quarter. His defensive rebounding enabled the Crusaders to get their fast break going. Chris Young and Al Grabowski turned long passes into baskets to aid Dufour in the Crusader 27 point second frame and push them into the lead, 36-26, at the intermission.

Newberry came back strong in the second half. They put on a man-to-man press that bothered the Crusaders. Freshman guard Darryl Bouchard put on quite a show as his hustle and desire kept the Holy Name players on their toes throughout the half.

Holy Name led 51-39 going into the fourth period, but were held to just two field goals by the pressing Indians. Newberry too the lead with 1:34 remaining in the contest on a shot by 5 foot 11 inch sophomore, Pete Lavender. Holy Name tied it up at 57-57 when Dufour was fouled by Cliff Fossitt. He made the second of his two shot foul to put the Crusaders back in the game. Fisher fouled John Bergh with 12 seconds remaining but Bergh missed the gift shot and Holy Name's Dan Young got the rebound. Then with the score tied Fisher converged his jump shot for the Holy Name victory.

Dufour led the Holy Name attack with 23 points. Grabowski chipped in with 10. Bouchard topped the Newberry scorers with 16 points and was followed by teammates Pete Lavender with 12 and Larry McTiver with 10.

Holy Name took 74 shots and made 24 for 32 per cent while Newberry made 22 of 64 for 33 per cent. The Crusaders were strong on the boards as they outrebounded the Indians 60-44.

Rapid River 70, Eben 52
Games Tonight
7:30—Trenary vs. Big Bay de Noc

ROCK — Seniors Mike Sigfrids and Alan Pasi led the Rapid River Rockets to victory in district tournament action last night over the Eben Eagles, 70-52.

The tourney resumes tonight when the Big Bay de Noc Black Bears take to the court against Trenary. The championship will be played Saturday night.

Sigfrids and Pasi topped all scorers on the floor as they dropped in 25 and 24 points respectively. The hot shooting Rockets were just too much for the Eagles as Rapid River's team jumped out to an early eight point first quarter lead. Eben closed the gap to six in the third frame. Klint Safford added 10 points to the Rocket scoring cause. Paul Salminen topped the Eagles with 18 points along with Alex Freberg's 16.

Rapid River made 14 of 17 free throw attempts in the almost foul free game. Eben only made four free throws as the Rockets only committed six fouls.

Rapid River now moves on to play Perkins on Thursday at 7:30.

Killy May Get Ski Suspension

POUND RIDGE, N.Y. (AP) — Jean-Claude Killy, triple gold medal winner in the recent Winter Olympic Games, has been given until Friday to show cause why he should not be suspended by the International Skiing Federation (FIS).

Killy, a Frenchman who won his gold medals in the Alpine skiiing events at the Grenoble Games, denied in Saint Gervais, France, on Tuesday that he had received money for exclusive photos in a Paris magazine.

Two Berths Remain In NCAA Event As Basketball Tournament Opens

By The Associated Press

It will be Columbia vs. LaSallle at College Park, Md., and East Tennessee vs. Florida State at Kent, Ohio, in the first round of the NCAA national collegiate basketball championship tournament on Saturday.

Columbia, eighth-ranked nationally, gained its NCAA berth by whipping Princeton 92-74 in the playoff Tuesday night for the Ivy League title. East Tennessee landed its spot by downing Murray State 79-75 in the playoff for the Ohio Valley Conference crown.

Kansas of the Big Eight became the 14th team named to the other major postseason tourney, New York's National Invitation. Two more teams still are to be selected to fill the NIT field.

The remaining two berths in the 23-team NCAA field will go to the winners this week of the Atlantic Coast Conference tourney and the West Coast Athletic Conference.

The unbeaten St. Bonaventure Brown Indians from Olean, N.Y., third-ranked nationally in The Associated Press poll to Houston and UCLA, just barely made it 24 in a row, including 22-0 this season. They had to go overtime for a 70-69 squeaker over Fairfield at New Haven, Conn.

Columbia, paced by soph Jim McMillian's 37 points, exploded early in the second half to drub Princeton on St. John's neutral court in New York.

Mike Kretzer paced East Tennessee over Murray State with 21 points in the OVC playoff on Eastern Kentucky's neutral court in Richmond, Ky. It was the first OVC championship for the Buccaneers.

Fordham and Villanova, each NIT-bound, scored easy victories. Fordham whipped Colgate 91-67 and the Wildcats took Seton Hall 80-66.

Indiana defeated Wisconsin 93-85, Purdue whipped Michigan State 93-75, Providence vanquished Brown 80-66, Xavier of Ohio edged Cincinnati 72-71, North Texas took Memphis State in overtime 63-62 and Niagara upended Canisius 96-84.

Calvin Murphy, Niagara's hot-shooting soph, the No. 2 scorer in the nation, got 41 points in his last game of the season. That gave him 916 for the year.

Albeck Named Coach Of Year

YPSILANTI (AP) — Stan Albeck, head basketball coach at Northern Michigan University in Marquette, has been named top coach of the Michigan National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for the third time.

The award was made Tuesday night at the NAIA district banquet.

Northern finished regular season play this year with a 16-8 record, boosting Albeck's 11-year record with the school to 178-77. His overall record, including one year of coaching at Adrian College, is 194-82.

Albeck, a native of Chenoa, Ill., previously was given the award in 1961 and 1965.

Marquette Team Tops Sweeper

Long's Party Store of Marquette rolled a 4242 to capture first place in the Bowl-A-Rama Sweeper Tournament. First place prize money was worth $1,000. Bauman's Eggs of Iron River finished in second place with 4194 and dropped early leader Paper Mill Credit Union of Niagara into third place.

George Wickstrom of Iron River won the singles optional with 729. Don Scott moved into second ahead of Dave Friets of Escanaba, with a 694 scratch series. George Sabol rolled a 268 game and picked up the 7-10 split.

There will be 15 places paid in the event, with 8 squad prizes for teams finishing out of the money, and 31 places paid in the singles optional. The winners can expect to receive their checks in the mail this week.

The five year old tournament drew a field of 120 entries from throughout the Upper Peninsula.

Boxing Bubbles With New Spirit

NEW YORK (AP) — Boxing bubbled with revived spirit today and looked ahead to a series of top caliber matches.

The highly successful twin title show in the new Madison Square Garden Monday night, in which Joe Frazier stopped Buster Mathis and Nino Benvenuti edged Emile Griffith, may have touched off a fresh boom in the often kicked around sport.

Cassius Clay said boxing would die when he left. Well, the corpse had a lively time Monday night when 18,096 fans paid from $10 to $100 in contributing to a record indoor gate of $658,503.

Frazier collected $175,000 and New York, Massachussetts, Maine and Illinois recognition as heavyweight champion while stopping Mathis with one short, jolting left hook to the temple in the 11th round.

The Philadelphia slugger's manager, Yancey Durham, talked about possible lucrative matches with the winner of the Jerry Quarry-Jimmy Ellis World Boxing Association title fight April 27, and with Floyd Patterson, Boone Kirman of Seattle, Wash., Manuel Ramos of Mexico and Argentine Eduardo Corletti.

Benvenuti, back at the top as middleweight champion, may take on Don Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, Luis Rodriguez of Miami, Fla., or Gypsy Harris of Philadelphia, in his next title fight.

Both managers said they would take their time before signing for the next match.

Hat Trick Leads Tech To Victory

By The Associated Press

Ed Shillington picked up a hat trick and an assist to lead Michigan Tech to a 5-2 victory over Colorado College in a Western Collegiate Hockey Association playoff game Tuesday night.

In other games, Minnesota beat Michigan, 5-3, North Dakota belted Michigan State, 5-2, and Denver routed Minnesota-Duluth, 11-4.

Michigan Tech now plays North Dakota in Houghton and Denver meets Minnesota in Denver in two-game series Friday and Saturday. The team in each series that compiles more goals over the two games than its opponent goes to the NCAA championships in Duluth March 14-16.

Michigan Tech led 2-1 at the end of the first period and 4-1 at the end of the second. Shillington scored once each period. Other Tech goals were by Al Karlander and George Bell.

Michigan Tech finished second in the regular WCHA season with a 22-8 season record.

North Dakota exploded for three goals in the third period in beating Michigan State, despite fine goal tending by the Spartans' Dick Duffett, who had to contend with 51 shots.

Michigan State scored both its goals in the final period on shots by Bob Demarco and Doug French.

Minnesota scored four goals in the first period in rolling over Michigan. Minnesota led 5-2 at the end of the second period, before Michigan's Doug Glendinning added the final Wolverine tally in the third. Other Michigan goals were by Doug Galbraith and Randy Binnie.

Ford Selected To Honor Team

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Western Michigan's Gene Ford was named today to the Mid-American Conference all - star basketball team. It is the third year for the 6-foot-5 junior.

Western's Reggie Lacefield, a 6-foot-4 senior, was named to the second team.

Others on the first team were Miami's Fred Foster, named MAC player of the year earlier this week, Bowling Green's Walt Piatkowski, Toledo's Steve Mix and Bob Redd of Marshall.

In other league news, Ohio University's Gerald McKee has been named MAC player of the week. Other nominees included Western Michigan's Ellis Hull.

Kankkonen Leads Skiers In Pine Mountain Event

IRON MOUNTAIN—Eighty-one years ago, Mikkel Hemmestvedt, a young transplanted Norwegian, made an amazing leap of 37 feet on a pair of hickory sticks at Red Wing, Minn., without breaking his neck and set the first North American ski-jumping record.

Eight decades and 301 feet later here Saturday and Sunday, Veikko Kankkonen, a Flying Finn who is among the world's best in the art of aerodynamics, will lead a field of 55 American and European daredevils aiming to break the present North American Record of 338 feet.

That's the thumbnail history of U.S. Ski-jumping which may be rewritten again here over the weekend on giant Pine Mountain, the highest ski slide in the world.

At Red Wing in 1887, only a handful of spectators were present, shaking their heads in disbelief over Hemmestvedt's feat. Here Saturday and Sunday, upwards of 25,000 will be here with hopes of seeing the first 350-foot flight in the U.S. history of the sport.

Weather cooperating, the 350-foot mark is within easy reach of Finland's Kankkonen, 1964 Olympic gold meadl winner. The Flying Finn arrived here Tuesday night fresh from a spectacular victory Sunday in Lahti, Finland, over the world's best, including Russia's newly - crowned 1968 Olympic world champion.

Also here to rehearse for the twin-tournament weekend are Chris Selbekk and Villie Johnansen, two top-ranking Norwegians. Both are powerful jumpers who feel right at home on a 90-meter hill. Selbekk is picked to put most of the presssure on Finland's favorite, Kankkonen.

Officials are hopeful that Duluth's Adrian Watt, who set the Pine Mountain record of 337 feet in January will arrive from Europe in time for the weekend classics. Also entered is Jay Rand, University of Wyoming, who made a spectacular leap of 339 feet, but fell, in January.

The Pine Mountain area was blessed with a fresh three-inch snowfall and the majestic hill is groomed to perfection with a 350-foot profile. First practice jumps ars scheduled Thursday.

Both tournaments, the Pine Mountain International Classic on Saturday and the Kiwanis Ski club Invitational on Sunday will start at 1:30 p.m.

Bing Breaks Loose In Piston Triumph

By The Associated Press

You just can't keep a good man down. Just ask the Chicago Bulls. They tried it on Dave Bing.

The Bulls held the Detroit Pistons star to nine points during the first three quarters Tuesday night.

But then Bing, the league's leading scorer, broke loose in the final period for 16 points in 12 minutes and led the Pistons to a 121-119 National Basketball Association victory.

The win moved the Pistons to within one point of fourth-place Cincinnati in the league's Eastern Division.

In other games, Boston dumped New York, 113-91, Philadelphia mauled San Diego, 134-103, St. Louis rolled over San Francisco, 134-117, and Baltimore topped Seattle, 126-121.

In the American Basketball Association, New Jersey beat Indiana, 121-111, Kentucky dropped New Orleans, 110-105, Dallas crushed Oakland, 135-117, and pittsburgh defeated Anaheim, 123-110.

Bing put the finishing touches on the Bulls with 45 seconds left in the game. He stole the ball from Jim Barnes and was fouled, sinking two free throws to put the Pistons ahead to stay.

Happy Hairston topped the Pistons with 30 points, while Bing bagged 25. The Bulls were headed by Bob Boozer with 30.

The race for the Eastern Division is tight between Philadelphia and Boston, and the Celtics, under pressure, yearn for the return of sharpshooting Sam Jones.

Jones has missed eight games with a severe virus and the Celtics have missed his scoring touch.

John Havlicek, dropping his customary sixth-man role and starting in Jones' absence, led the Boston scorers with 29 points. The Celtics took a 58-44 halftime lead and the cold-shooting Knicks couldn't catch up. Dick Barnett's 20 points led New York.

Wilt Chamberlain with 31 points led the 76ers closer to their third straight Eastern Division title. Wilt also had 21 rebounds and 15 assists. Toby Kimball had 22 for San Diego.

St. Louis' victory over San Francisco reduced its magic number of clinching the Western Division title to four. The Hawks, in whipping the Warriors for the seventh time in eight outings, pulled away with a 47-point third period after leading at halftime 59-52.

Don Ohl triggered the St. Louis attack with 28 points while Rudy LaRusso of San Francisco took game scoring honors with 29.

A scuffle between Bob Ferry of Baltimore and Walt Hazzard of Seattle enlivened the Bullets' triumph. Midway in the third period Ferry knocked down Hazzard and both benches emptied within seconds.

Coach Al Bianchi of Seattle had his glasses knocked off in the skirmish before policemen and the officials restored order. Ferry and Hazzard were ejected.

Less than a minute later Coach Gene Shue of Baltimore drew the first of two technical fouls and he eventually was banished.

Earl Monroe converted a pair of free throws in the closing seconds to give the Bullets a 124-121 edge. Monroe scored 28 points, one less than teammate Gus Johnson. Tommy Kron was high for the Sonics with 27.

Two Win In City Tourney Action

The Merchants downed Robinson's 75-56 and the Jets dropped Skinny's 71-64 in City League Basketball.

Bill Micheau topped the Merchant scorer with 18 and teammate Al Erickson chipped in with 12. Robinson's was led by Arnie Gagnon with 17 and Gary Randall with 13.

In the other contest the Jets' Ron Povolo had 17 points and Mike Nelson dropped in 16. Rick Kutchenberg's 24 and Jim Bruce's 23 were high for Skinny's.

The schedule:

Monday: 7 — Stone House vs. Independents; 8 — Merchants vs. Jets.

Wednesday: 7 — Championship.

7:00—Bark River vs. Felch
8:30 — Hermansville vs Powers

POWERS — The Powers-Spalding Tigers opened the Class D district basketball tournament Tuesday night with a 79-62 decision over the Carney Wolves.

The tourney resumes Thursday night at 7 when Bark River clashes with Felch in the opener and Powers meets Hermansville in the finale. The championship game will be played Saturday night.

The extremely tight contest saw the two teams deadlocked at intermission and still tied at 58-58 with six minutes remaining in the game. At this point Powers went into a zone defense which caused the Wolves some difficulty. The Powers attack picked up and they pulled ahead of the now cold Carney five.

Powers hit on 30 of 61 field goal attempts and hauled in 57 rebounds enroute to victory. Carney could only manage 23 of 57 attempts and 36 rebounds. Top rebounders for the Tigers were Roger Stebbins with 19 and Kim Riedy and Tom Betters with 12 apiece.

Scott Riedy was Powers' big gun from the floor as he netted 26 points. Kim Riedy added 17 along with Stebbins' 14 and Tom Smith's 10. Mickey Adams and Tim Moran led the Wolves with 19 and 15 points.

Council Will Set Policy On Water And Sewer Line

City Council met in special session Tuesday afternoon to consider a policy of financial responsibility regarding water and sewer lines in the city and set Monday's regular council meeting for reaching a decision.

City Manager Robert Noe proposed that the city assume only the maintenance of the sewer mains that run down the middle of the street.

The individual homeowner would be responsible for keeping the lateral line open from their home to the main and replacement and maintenance of same.

The city would assume maintenance of all water mains in the street and all lateral lines up to the property line of the homeowner. Service would be available from the city who would bill the homeowner at cost.

Council could not agree on the city's point of responsibility in the proposed shared-expense recommendation and a motion was made to postpone the decision until Monday night's council meeting.

Also on the agenda for Monday's regular meeting will be discussion on an ordinance pertaining to houstrailers in the city; senior citizens housing; and designation of a council member to negotiating sessions.

MSU Players Here March 24

"The Skin Of Our Teeth", a comedy by Thorton Wilder, will be presented by the Performing Arts Company of Michigan State University in the Manistique High School auditorium on March 24 under sponsorship of the Rotary Club.

Proceeds from the production will go into the Rotary Scholarship Fund.

Rotary Scholarship provides $100 yearly help to a deserving student from the graduating class of M. H. S. Selection of the recipient is made by the faculty and administration of the school.

"Skin Of Our Teeth", which won the Pulitzer Award in 1942-43, first opened in New York in 1942. Tallulah Bankhead, Frederic March and Florence Eldridge created the original roles, with Elia Kazan directing the prize-winning play.

MSU Performing Arts Company is a group of graduate and under-graduate students who present theater entertainment throughout the state. Frank C. Rutledge of the MSU faculty is directing the cast of 10 for the Manistique production.

In past years, the Performing Arts Company has presented "Saint Joan" and "Hamlet" for local audiences.

Rotarian William J. Cook is general chairman and will be assisted by John Kelly, ushering, and James Tagg and David Kelly, co-chairman of publicity.

Troop 420 Takes Honors In Derby

Manistique Boy Scout Troop 402 took top honors at the annual Klondike Derby held Saturday at the Gladstone Ski Club.

The Rebels, 402's winning patrol, collected 135 of a possible 150 points to capture the blue ribbon award of honor and merit.

The Panthers, Troop 402's second patrol, received 105 points for the honor unit award.

The patrols were challenged by five problems which could be solved using skills and knowledge gained in scouting. Each problem was worth 30 points. Boys were judged on scout skills, scout spirit, and teamwork.

Gas Exhaust Pollution Curb Makes Progress

DES PLAINES, Ill. — Universal Oil Products Co. is having "considerable success" in current research efforts to control automobile exhaust-emissions, announces John O. Logan, president. Logan revealed the company, long a leader in catalytic processing, has "reached levels well below contemplated 1970 standards in extended-mileage vehicle tests using lead-free fuel."

"The progress being made is attributable to a change in the viewpoint of those most concerned with auto exhaust-emission as it relates to the overall problem of air pollution. The initial approach had been to find a single, practical solution to the total problem. This was only partially successful, despite intensive efforts by the automotive manufacturers, the petroleum industry and others who have been working on supplementary devices intended to control exhaust-emissions.

"Those of us who have been most actively seeking a solution finally concluded that only by making certain modifications in the vehicle itself, incorporating a catalyst in the exhaust system and tailoring a gasoline especially for the purpose could we eliminate the problem. Present California standards are being substantially exceeded in our laboratory engine tests, using leaded fuel.

"Two years ago representatives of our company testified at a symposium conducted by the U. S. Public Health Service regarding the technical weasibility and economics of producing a lead-free gasoline meeting current quality standards. It was then estimated it could be accomplished at an additional cost of approximately one cent per gallon. Continuing research indicates it may be possible to lower even that figure. If the federal or state governments would give up just one cent of the present 10 cent tax on each gallon of gasoline, there would be no added cost to the public."

UOP is participating in cooperative programs with the automotive industry for the evaluation and testing of various catalysts developed by the company for exhaust-emission control systems.

First state agricultural experiment station was set up at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., in 1875.

Unions, Copper Firms Still Spar

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negotiators for 26 striking unions and 4 giant copper firms continue fencing over bargaining procedure under a loose mantel of White House surveillance.

"It looks very much as if this is a low - key effort by the White House," said one source of President Johnson's efforts to revive negotiations in the 236-day strike shutting down most U.S. copper production.

One firm — Phelps Dodge Corp. — reportedly was already doing some initial bargaining after the unions agreed to separate negotiations covering three different types of company operations.

Sources said Anaconda Co. and American Smelting & Refining Co., also will sit down with the unions in separate groups today.

But Kennecott Copper Corp. was reportedly having trouble working out a bargaining format with the unions.

Talks were being conducted in the executive office building next door to the White House with several of Johnson's cabinet members and other federal officials sitting in.

The chief snag in the dispute has been the unions' demands for company - wide bargaining covering all the widely scattered mining, smelting, refining and fabricating operations of each company.

The dispute over how to sit down at the bargaining table has blocked virtually all talks over union demands for about $1 per hour in increased wages and fringe benefits over three years. Wages now run from $2.66 to $3.67 per hour.

The companies have refused to bargain on a company - wide basis, insisting on the old pattern of separate talks for different operations spread over 22 states.

While Johnson appealed for "around - the - clock" bargaining, there appeared little sign of the heavy presidential persuasion he used in past year in calling major railroad, steel and airline disputes to the White House.

Connor Forest Industries Buys Wood Toy Maker

NEW YORK (AP)—Connor Forest Industries, a hardwood products manufacturer, announced Monday the acquisition of Sifo, a wooden toy manufacturing company.

Connor said it bought 100 per cent of the stock of Sifo, which has its main plant and headquarters in Minneapolis, Minn. The purchase price was not disclosed.

Connor manages over 300 square miles of timberland, with operations in Wausau and Laona, Wis., and a plant in Wakefield, Mich. Sifo is a leading supplier of education toys, manufactured in a wide range of materials, for the retail market.

Find Flat Tires Seldom Cause Car Accidents

CHICAGO (AP) — A study financed by the Rubber Manufacturers Association shows that automobile drivers could drive to the moon and back 75 times without having an accident caused by a flat tire.

According to the survey, conducted by the Northwestern University Traffic Institute, flat tires contribute to only between 0.9 and 2.4 per cent of car accidents on expressways. The institute reported these findings after studying the cause of 1,486 auto accidents on the Illinois Tollway from September 1966 to August 1967.

J. Stannard Baker, director of research at the institute, said the study showed 99.94 per cent of drivers during the test period coped successfully with an estimated 60,000 flat tires on the Tollway. Drivers, he said, tend to blame about two-and-one half times as many accidents on tire disablements as are justified.

Schweigert Gets French Lesson

LANSING (AP) — State Sen. Thomas Schweigert may not know how one of his young constituents feels about the controversial bill to grant state aid to nonpublic schools, but he does know how the boy is doing in French.

Like most legislators, the Petoskey Republican has been swamped recently with letters from both supporters and opponents of the bill, now in House and Senate Education committees.

Recently he received a batch of letters written by school children in Sault Ste. Marie.

One letter, instead of asking for support for the bill, contained a boy's French lesson.

Schweigert said the boy appears to have a bright future if he ever is called on to use his French.

He had only two minor errors and the teacher rewarded him with a "95."

Carmakers Push For 9 Million In Sales This Year

DETROIT (AP)—Automakers are predicting and hoping that new cars sales in 1968 will hit the magic nine-million mark for the third time in industry history, but preliminary sales reports indicate the race to that figure will be a close call.

For combined sales of the third time in industry history, but preliminary sales reports indicate the race to that figure will be a close call.

For combined sales of the four Detroit automakers and the foreign imports to top the nine-million mark, Detroit will have to find a greater percentage of its sales in the last 10 months of the year than it did in either of the previous nine-million years. Or, the foreign makers will have to surpass the already impressive growth rates they have shown in past years, and industry sources consider this unlikely.

Face Big If

In the last 10 months of 1965, the record year, Detroit sold 84.3 per cent of its total volume for the year, and in the following year, the second best in auto sales history, 83.9 per cent of Detroit's sales came in the last 10 months.

If General Motors, Ford, Chrysler and American Motors sell 84 per cent of their total volume this year in the last 10 months they'll end with total sales of 7.84 million, meaning that foreign makers would have to sell an almost impossible 1.16 million cars to bring sales up to the nine million mark.

Imports Up

The importers increased their share of the market from 7.3 per cent in 1966 to 9.2 per cent last year, with total sales growing 18 per cent from 660,000 in 1966 to 760,000 in 1967.

Another 18 per cent increase would put sales of foreign makes up to 869,800 this year, but most automakers estimate a lower total. Stig Jansson, president of Volvo (USA) Inc., distributor for the Swedish car, forecast a 825,000-unit year for imports. Roy D. Chapin Jr., board chairman at American Motors, went as high as 835,000, whereas Lynn A. Townsend, Chrysler's board chairman recently pegged the foreign total at 800,000.

Ahead Of 1967

If Detroit can up its sales in the last 10 months so they comprise 85 per cent of the annual total, the domestic total will reach 8.36 million, which with a good performance by imports will put the nine million mark within reach.

The 1.25 million cars sold by the four Detroit car builders during the first two months of 1968, is well ahead of the 1.07 million sold during the same period last year, when sales were in a tailspin in the wake of the auto safety controversy, among other things.

But the pace so far has lagged behind 1966, when Detroit sold 1.35 million in the first two months, or 16.1 per cent of the total tally of 8.37 million, and 1965 when January and February sales were 1.38 million, 15.7 per cent of the final tally total of 8.75 million.

Another factor that may throw cold water on Detroit's hopes is a report released Thursday by the U. S. Commerce Department, which pegged total new car sales this year at 8.9 million.

Unborn Child Is Not A Person, Says High Court

LANSING (AP) — The State Supreme Court has ruled that an unborn child is not a "person" within the meaning of Michigan's wrongful death act.

The law provides for damages when a person is killed or injured by a wrongful act.

Justice Michael O'Hara in the majority opinion, declared, "we make clear at the outset that we are not here considering the theological nor philosophical status of a fetal child in the context of laws relating to abortion.

"We confine ourselves strictly to the meaning of a 'person' within the wrongful death act."

The case involved a boy, stillborn to a woman who was seeking damages from the City of Troy.

The Supreme Court decision upheld similar rulings by the Oakland County Circuit Court and the Court of Appeals.

The mother was six months pregnant when she was injured in an automobile accident with a car owned by the City of Troy.

Negro Threatens Detroit Control Through Ballot

KALAMAZOO (AP) — The Rev. Albert B. Cleague Jr. of Detroit, a black power advocate, told some 500 Kalamazoo College students here that the only alternative to Negro self-determination is genocide, "a genocide which would be the most expensive ever undertaken."

The Rev. Mr. Cleage, a Negro, said centralization of Negroes in urban core areas will result in control of central cities by Negroes.

"We're going to control Detroit, if not in the next election then in the one after that," he said. "And when we gain control through election to governmental office, we'll treat you (whites) as you have treated us," said the Rev. Mr. Cleage.
